PROCESSIONAL.

“WELCOME, happy,” morning, age to age shall say;

Hell to-day is vanquished, Heaven is won to-day.

Lo! the Dead is living, God forevermore!

Him, their true Creator, all His works adore!

“Welcome, happy morning!” age to age shall say

Earth her joy confesses, clothing her for spring,
All fresh gifts returned with her returning King;
Bloom in every meadow, leaves on every bough,
Speak His sorrow ended, hail His triumph now;
Hell to-day is vanquished, heaven is won to-day.

Months in due succession, days of lengthening light,

Hours and moments passing praise Thee in their flight.

Brightness of the morning, sky and fields and sea
Vanquisher of darkness, bring their praise to Thee!

“Welcome, happy morning!” age to age shall say.

Maker and Redeemer, Life and Health of all,
Thou, from heaven beholding human nature's fall,
Of the Father's God-Head true and only Son, Manhood to deliver, Manhood did put on;
Hell to-day is vanquished, heaven is won to-day.

Thou, of Life the Author, death didst undergo,
Tread the path of darkness, saving strength to show;

Come then, True and Faithful, now fulfill Thy word,

“The Thine own third morning, rise O buried
“Welcome, happy morning!” age to age shall say.

Loose the souls long prisoned, bound with Satan's
All that now is fallen raise to life again, (chain;
Shew Thy face in brightness bid the nations see,
Bring again our daylight; day returns with Thee,
Hell to-day is vanquished, heaven is won to-day,
Amen.

LORD'S PRAYER.

CAROL.

EASTER flowers are blooming bright,
Easter skies pour radiant light,
Christ our Lord is risen in might,
Glory in the highest!

Angels caroll'd this sweet lay,
When in manger rude He lay,
Now once more cast grief away,
Glory in the highest!

Easter flowers are blooming bright,
Easter skies pour radiant light,
Christ our Lord is risen in might,
Glory in the highest!

He, then born to grief and pain,
Now to glory born again,
Calleft forth our gladdest strain,
Glory in the highest!

As He riseth, rise we too,
Tune we heart and voice anew,
Offering homage glad and true,
Glory in the highest!

Easter flowers are blooming bright,
Easter skies pour radiant light,
Christ our Lord is risen in might,
Glory in the highest!

CAROL.

CHRIST is risen, Christ is risen!
He hath burst His bonds in twain;
Christ is risen, Christ is risen!

Alleluia, swell the strain!

For our gain He suffered loss,

By Divine decree,

He hath died upon the Cross,

But our God is He.

Christ is risen, Christ is risen!

He hath burst His bonds in twain,

Christ is risen, Christ is risen!

Alleluia, swell the strain.

See the chains of death are broken,

Earth below and heaven above

Joy in each amazing token

Of His rising, Lord of Love,

He for evermore shall reign

By His Father's side,

“Till He come to earth again,

Comes to claim His bride,

Christ is risen, Christ is risen!

He hath burst His bonds in twain,

Christ is risen, Christ is risen!

Alleluia, swell the strain.

Glorious angels downward thronging,

Hail the Lord of all the skies,

Heaven with joy and holy longing

For the Word Incarnate, cries,

“Christ is risen! Earth, rejoice!

Gleam, ye starry train!

All creation, find a voice,

He o'er all shall reign.”

Christ is risen, Christ is risen!

He hath burst His bonds in twain;

Christ is risen, Christ is risen!

O'er the universe to reign.

BENEDICTION.

RECESSIONAL.

THE strife is o'er, the battle done,
The victory of life is won;
The song of triumph has begun,

Alleluia.

The powers of death have done their worst,
But Christ their legions hath dispersed;
Let shout of holy joy outburst,

Alleluia.

The three sad days are quickly sped,
He rises glorious from the dead;
All glory to our risen head,

Alleluia.

He closed the yawning gates of hell,
The bars from heaven's high portals fell;
Let hymns of praise His triumphs tell,

Alleluia.

Lord, by the stripes which wounded Thee,
From death's dread sting thy servants free:
That we may live and sing to Thee,

Alleluia.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM - R. Huntington Woodman

"When it was yet Dark"

When it was yet dark very early in the morning, the first day of the week, they came unto the sepulchre, and when they looked they saw that the stone was rolled away, and they entered in, and saw two angels in white sitting one at the head, and the other at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain. And the angels said unto them: Why seek ye the living among the dead? He is not here, He is risen, as He said. Come see the place where they laid Him. He is not here, He is risen. Jesus lives! Thy terrors now, can, O death, no more appall us, Jesus lives! by this we know, thou O grave canst not enthrall us. Jesus lives! henceforth is death, but the gate of life immortal, This shall calm our trembling breath, when we pass its gloomy portal. Jesus lives! for us He died, then alone to Jesus living, pure in heart may we abide, glory to our Saviour giving. Jesus lives! our hearts know well nought from us His love can sever, life, nor death, nor pow'rs of hell, tear us from His keeping ever. Jesus lives! to Him the throne over all the world is giv'n. May we go where He is gone, rest and reign with Him in heav'n. Allelujah! Amen.

OFFERTORY ASCRPTION - - "Old Hundred"

John Stainer

Fling wide the gates, for the Saviour waits
To tread in His royal way;
He has come down from above, in His power and love
To die on this Passion Day.

His Cross is a sign of a love divine,
His Crown is the thorn wreath of woe,
He bears His load on the sorrowful road,
And bends 'neath the burden low,
How sweet is the grace of His sacred face
And lovely beyond compare.
Tho' weary and worn with the merciless scorn
Of a world He has come to spare,
The burden of wrong that earth bears along;
Past evil, and evil to be,-
All sins of man since the world began.
They are laid, dear Lord, on Thee.
Then on to the end, my God and my Friend,
With Thy banner lifted high!
Thou art come from above in Thy power and love,
To endure and suffer and die.

Bread of heav'n, on Thee we feed, For Thy flesh is meat indeed;
Ever may our souls be fed with this true and living Bread;
Day by day with strength supplied, Through the life of Him who died.
Vine of heav'n, Thy blood supplies this blest cup of sacrifice;
Lord, Thy wounds our healing give, To Thy Cross we look and live;
Jesus, may we ever be grafted, rooted, built in Thee.

As it began to dawn toward the first day of the week came Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to see the sepulchre. For behold there was a great earthquake and the Angel of the Lord descended from Heaven and came and rolled back the stone from the door and sat upon it. His countenance was like lightning and his raiment white as snow, and for fear of Him the keepers shook and became as dead men. And the Angel answered and said unto the women "Fear not ye, for I know that ye seek Jesus which was crucified. He is not here for He is risen as He said. Come see the place where the Lord lay; and go quickly and tell His disciples that He is risen from the dead". - - Jesus Christ is risen to-day, Alleluia! Our triumphant holy day, Alleluia! While shepherds watch'd their flocks by night,
 All seated on the ground,
 The angel of the Lord came down,
 And glory shone around.

"Fear not", said he, for mighty dread,
 Had seized their troubled mind;
 "Glad tidings of great joy I bring To you and all mankind".

"To you, in David's town, this day
 Is born in David's line,
 The Saviour, Who is Christ the Lord;
 And this shall be the sign.

"The heavenly Babe you there shall find
 To human view displayed,
 All meanly wrapped in swathing bands,
 And in a manger laid.

Thus spake the seraph, and forthwith
 Appeared a shining throng
 Of angels praising God, who thus Addressed their joyful song:

"All glory be to God on high
 And on the earth be peace;
 Good-will henceforth from heaven to men
 Begin and never cease". - Amen

 O holy night! the stars are brightly shining,
 It is the night of the dear Saviour's birth,
 Long lay the world in sin and error pining,
 Till He appeared and the soul felt its worth.
 A thrill of hope the weary world rejoices,
 For yonder breaks a new and glorious morn.
 Fall on your knees! O hear the angel voices!
 O night divine, O night when Christ was born,
 O night divine, O night, O night divine.

Led by the light of Faith serenely beaming,
 With glowing hearts by His cradle we stand.
 So led by light of a star sweetly gleaming,
 Here came the wise men from the Orient land.
 The King of Kings lay thus in a lowly manger,
 In all our trials born to be our friend.
 He knows our need! He guards us from all danger.
 Behold your King! Before the lowly bend,
 Behold your King, your King, before Him bend.

Fling wide the gates, for the Saviour waits
To tread in His royal way;
He has come from above, in His power and love
To die on this Passion Day.

His Cross is the sign of a love divine,
His Crown is the thorn wreath of woe,
He bears His load on the sorrowful road,
And bends 'neath the burden low.

How sweet is the grace of His sacred face
And lovely beyond compare
Tho' weary and worn with the merciless scorn
Of a world He has come to spare.

The burden of wrong that earth bears along;
Past evil, and evil to be,—
All sins of man since the world began.
They are laid, dear Lord, on Thee.

Then on to the end, my God and my Friend,
With Thy banner uplifted high!
Thou art come from above in Thy power and love,

THIS DAY OF JOY

PALM SUNDAY came as a lightning flash from the darkened sky. Everywhere there were indications of opposition to Jesus and His message. The organization of those who hated Him would soon be effective. But, for a few hours on this day, there was light and joy. The spontaneous enthusiasm of the multitude, refusing to be repressed or regimented, sang its praises to the Son of David.

This display of sincere emotion was treasured by Jesus. He did not blind Himself to the approaching clouds. But this sincere display affected Him. It was honest impulse which for once had play unstifled. To those who would rebuke the singing throngs he said: "I tell you that if these should hold their peace the stones would immediately cry out."

She Hears His Voice

IT was Easter dawn. Mary Magdalene had come, with the other women, to place the spices on the body of the beloved Master. But the tomb was empty. This was the final blow. Was she to be denied this one last act of devotion? ¶Some one draws near. She cannot see clearly through the tears which flood her eyes. Thinking it must be the gardener, she said, "Sir, if thou hast borne Him hence, tell me where thou hast laid Him, and I will take Him away." ¶Then she heard a voice. It uttered but one word, "Mary." That was enough. Tears could blind the eyes but her ears could not be deceived. It was Jesus. His voice could never be forgotten. ¶She had heard it as He preached in winsome sweetness in the fields and towns of Galilee. She had heard it, in severity, demand seven demons to leave her own soul. Just a few months before she had heard it pleading, saying, "The good shepherd calleth His own sheep by name." And now He was calling her.

"HE SPEAKS AND THE SOUND OF HIS VOICE IS SO SWEET THE BIRDS HUSH THEIR SINGING."

For Mary all is changed. The tears are dried. Her sky has brightened. Her Lord has been restored.

 Christ the Lord is risen to-day,
 Sons of men and angels say:
 Raise your joys and triumphs high,
 Sing ye, heav'n, and earth reply.
 Christ is risen from the dead, and become the first-fruits of them that slept.

The three sad days are quickly sped;
 He rises glorious from the dead:
 All glory to our risen Head!
 Soar we now where Christ hath led,
 Following our exalted Head:
 Made like Him, like Him we rise;
 Ours the cross, the grave, the skies.
 Praise the Lord O my soul and forget not all His benefits.

The Day of Triumph

THIS day of the triumphant entry stands at the beginning of Holy Week with its plaudits, threats, tears and its messages of hope. Palm Sunday calls to mind the cheering multitudes who hailed Jesus as a conquering King. It is a day of victory but Jesus was not deceived by the words of any for He knew that, all too soon, these same followers would be shouting, "Crucify Him!"

Jesus had set His feet upon the path that led to a cross-crowned Calvary. He was free from fear and indecision because of His unparalleled devotion to the will of God; and for a soul of such heroic stature there could be no turning back. The road required eyes unwavering and a heart unflinching. And, this Palm Sunday, Jesus would have us keep close to the events of Holy Week and thus come to Easter Day with a triumphant song in our hearts, being like Him forgetful of self in our love for others.

REMEMBER

Our Presiding Bishop asks us to observe the following essentials of a fully dedicated Christian Life:

DAILY PRAYER,- the constant communication with God during the day; so feeling the Presence of the Father that the heart will pulsate its weaknesses, anxieties and holy desires momentarily to Him.

WEEKLY WORSHIP,- the rendering with others in common devotion, of praise, thanksgiving and adoration to God, and our united intercessions for the peace, welfare and happiness of all mankind as well as our own.

REGULAR COMMUNIONS,- the frequent reception of the more abundant life promised us through the Blessed Sacrament of our Lord's Body and Blood to build us into strength and holiness.

PERSONAL SERVICE,- the interested help, comfort and blessing we can bring to our fellow-men in our daily walk of life; and the assistance that we can give our Church in actual time, effort and work in the various organizations of our parish.

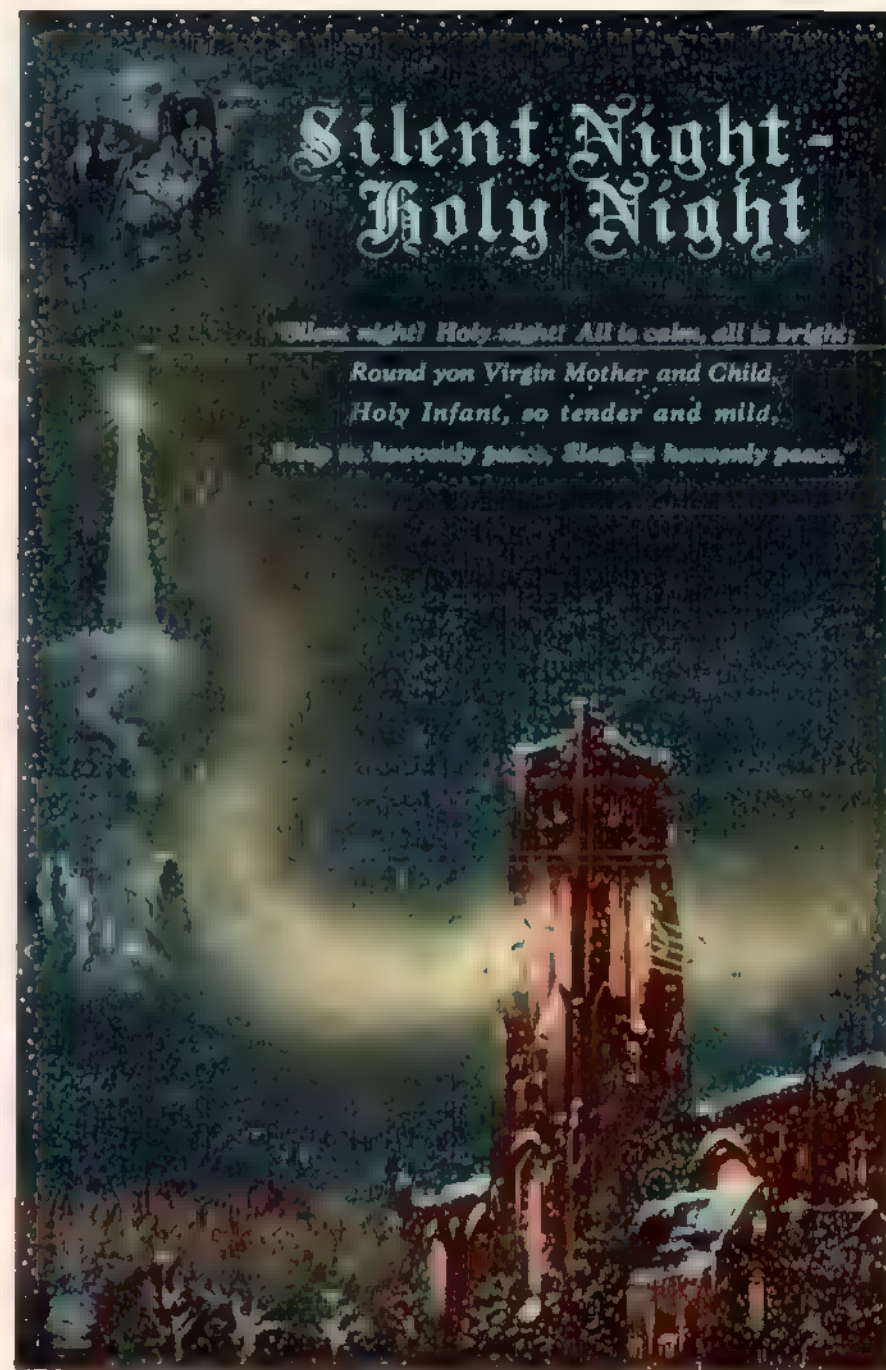

PROPORTIONATE GIVING;- the return of a just share of our substance to God for the expenses connected with our Parish and the spread of His Kingdom throughout the world.

"O Lord, thy heavenly grace impart,
And fix my frail inconstant heart;
Henceforth my chief delight shall be
To dedicate myself to thee".

Oberlin

The Light of the World is with us. May we behold His Glory and receive the fullness of His Grace in the Blessed Sacrament; that He may dwell in us and we in Him, now in this Holy Season and throughout the coming year.

Palm Sunday

As JESUS and His group of friends neared the Holy City on that first Palm Sunday journeying from Bethany to Jerusalem to observe the Feast of the Passover, they were met by a great crowd which had come out from the city to welcome them. It was an enthusiastic group. Gathering about Him, they turned to escort Him into the city. Some pulled off their long cloaks and cast them in the road, others broke branches from the trees and cast them in the way. Most of them carried palm branches in their hands and, as they recounted to one another the good works and many fine deeds they had seen Him do, they rejoiced and praised God with loud voices, crying: "Hosanna, blessed be the Lord: peace in heaven and glory in the highest."

Never was there such a Triumphal Entry! Never such a king, a king of Peace, a king of Love, the King of Kings!

It wasn't long after this when the streets of the Holy City were filled with a very different cry. "Crucify Him! Crucify the Nazarene!" But the Triumphal Entry had accomplished its purpose.

There are two kinds of religion: the religion of the crowd and the religion of the heart. It is not difficult to be religious when the crowd makes it popular and easy. But the religion of the heart is the kind of religion that remains faithful in the face of bitter opposition and unjust persecution. It is the religion which bids men join with the multitude of the first Palm Sunday and cry: "Hosanna in the highest" and then "Crown Him Lord of all."

Fling wide the gates, for the Saviour waits
To tread in His royal way;
He has come from above, in His power and love
To die on this Passion Day.

His Cross is the sign of a love divine.
His Crown is the thorn wreath of woe,
He bears His load on the sorrowful road,
And bends 'neath the burden low.

How sweet is the grace of His sacred face
And lovely beyond compare.
Tho' weary and worn with the merciless scorn
Of a world He has come to spare.

The burden of wrong that earth bears along;
Past evil and evil to be,
All sins of man since the world began.
They are laid, dear Lord, on Thee.

Then on to the end, my God and my friend,
With Thy banner uplifted on high!
Thou art come from above in Thy power and love,
To endure and suffer and die!

The three sad days are quickly sped;
He rises glorious from the dead:
All glory to our risen head!

The Day of Triumph

THIS day of the triumphant entry stands at the beginning of Holy Week with its plaudits, threats, tears and its messages of hope. Palm Sunday calls to mind the cheering multitudes who hailed Jesus as a conquering King. It is a day of victory but Jesus was not deceived by the words of any for He knew that, all too soon, these same followers would be shouting, "Crucify Him!"

Jesus had set His feet upon the path that led to a cross-crowned Calvary. He was free from fear and indecision because of His unparalleled devotion to the will of God; and for a soul of such heroic stature there could be no turning back. The road required eyes unwavering and a heart unflinching. And, this Palm Sunday, Jesus would have us keep close to the events of Holy Week and thus come to Easter Day with a triumphant song in our hearts, being like Him forgetful of self in our love for others.

HOLY WEEK MEDITATIONS

Palm Sunday

As JESUS and His group of friends neared the Holy City on that first Palm Sunday, journeying from Bethany to Jerusalem to observe the Feast of the Passover, they were met by a great crowd which had come out from the city to welcome them. It was an enthusiastic group. Gathering about Him, they turned to escort Him into the city. Some pulled off their long cloaks and cast them in the road, others broke branches from the trees and cast them in the way. Most of them carried palm branches in their hands and, as they recounted to one another the good works and many fine deeds they had seen Him do, they rejoiced and praised God with loud voices, crying: "Hosanna, blessed be the Lord; peace in heaven and glory in the highest."

Never was there such a Triumphal Entry! Never such a king: a king of Peace, a king of Love, the King of Kings!

It wasn't long after this when the streets of the Holy City were filled with a very different cry. "Crucify Him! Crucify the Nazarene!" But the Triumphal Entry had accomplished its purpose.

The dews of death are gathering round Thee;

But in weakness and surrender,
Thou hangest here.

Who can be like Thee?
Pilot high in Zion dwelling,
Rome with arms the world compelling,
Proud tho' they be?

Thou art sublime!
Far more awful in Thy weakness,
More than kingly in Thy meekness,
Thou Son of God.

Glory and honor;
Let the world divide and take them;
Crown its monarchs and unmake them;
But Thou wilt reign.

There, in glory interceding,
Thou art the King!

The Easter Message

EASTER DAY points to one great event, the resurrection of Jesus Christ. It was God's vindication of our Lord's life and death. Jesus had endured the anguish and agony of Good Friday in the faith that God would not remain silent in the face of sin and injustice. Everything that Jesus taught and urged upon his followers as being eternally true before his death, and all that He had to say about his death, was vindicated when "God raised Him from the dead."

The resurrection was God speaking to the world in a language it could understand. It proclaimed to all mankind that He was master of all the forces of his universe. It was his way of proclaiming to the world that brute force can never triumph ultimately over love and that despair can never permanently take the place of hope in the human heart. It was spoken in a language that will never be forgotten.

So the resurrection speaks to us today. In spite of the questions that haunt us at times and the longings that make us forlorn, Easter reaffirms the mighty truth that God lives in us and we in Him, in whom there is no death, but only life forevermore. It brings us renewed assurance that in the shadow of life there is hidden a love greater than we can think or know, and that it has in its keeping the loves and fellowships of our mortal years.

May this Easter vision be ours and may it continue to grow in our hearts until the morning dawns and these earthly shadows flee away.

YOUR CHRISTMAS COMMUNION - While there is no Canon Law or Rubric in the Prayer Book demanding that every person considering himself or herself a Communicant of the Episcopal Church should receive his or her communion on Christmas Day, for ages it has been an established tradition that each one let nothing hinder him from doing so on Christmas, Easter and Whitsunday. Of course, it is understood that no layman receive his communion twice on any one of these days. Let it further be understood that if we wish to receive the most help from the service, we should observe what the Psalmist stated, "Be still and know that I am God."

HANDEL'S MESSIAH - St. Peter's Oratorio Society will present the entire Handel's Messiah" on Sunday, January 6, 1952 from 2 to 7 P.M. Hearing the "Messiah" is a Christmas Tradition of long standing. To hear it completely is an opportunity rarely offered. Therefore, you are especially invited to hear this performance. Refreshments will be served between Parts 2 and 3. Admission free, but your contribution is requested in order to defray expenses.

FORWARD BOOKLETS - The price of this very beneficial booklet has been raised per copy from five to six cents beginning with the Advent issue. We trust this little advance will not hinder people from taking them when circulated in the pews.

BOXES OF ENVELOPES - Those who have not already secured their boxes of envelopes for 1952 will find the same on the wall pew in the rear of the church. They are alphabetically arranged and, therefore, it will not be difficult for you to find yours. Take them today so that you will have them for the first Sunday in January and also save the church the mailing expense.

CHOIR AWARDS - Three choir boys were awarded semi-annual awards for attendance at rehearsals and greatest improvement over the past six months. R. Shipley Klein and Michael Walker will wear the church's small gold crosses on purple ribbons. Joseph Fasy received the Choirmaster's Prize given to the boy showing the best musical sight reading ability.

OMISSION - Through an oversight the name of Mr. Raymond Hetzel was omitted in the article in last week's Kalendar on the new Purple Stole. Mr. Hetzel also had a part in this gift to the church. We regret this oversight.

CIRCUMCISION OF CHRIST - January 1 - Celebration of the Holy Communion, 10 A. M.
NO SERVICE on Thursday, 3rd.

'QUAINTANCE CLUB - There will be a meeting on Thursday, January 3rd at 8:15 o'clock in the Parish House.

CONFIRMATION CLASS - This will be held today and on January 13th and 20th at 4 P.M. in the Chapel.
January 6th will be omitted because of the St. Peter's Oratorio Society performance of Handel's "Messiah" at 3 P.M. on that day. Bishop Hart will visit the parish and confirm those who will present themselves on January 27th at 11 A. M.

HANDEL'S "MESSIAH" - St. Peter's Oratorio Socie'y will present the entire Handel's "Messiah" on Sunday, January 6th, 1952 from 3 to 7 P.M. Hearing the "Messiah" is a Christmas Tradition of long standing. To hear it completely is an opportunity rarely offered. Therefore, you are especially invited to hear this performance. Refreshments will be served between Parts 2 and 3. Admission free, but your contribution is requested in order to defray expenses.

CHRISTMAS DECORATIONS - Thanks is hereby extended to all who so generously contributed toward the beautiful poinsettia decorations in our church on Christmas Day. The plants were distributed to the sick and shut-ins. Appreciation is extended to those delivering the plants; also to Mr. Stewart for bringing the decorations to the church; to Messrs. John Walker and Robert H. Hutchinson, Jr. for hanging the laurel, etc. and to Mrs. Lippincott, Mrs. Vogt and Mr. Goodwin for arranging the poinsettias.

CANDLES - All the candles needed to create the proper atmosphere for our Christmas Mid-night Choral Holy Communion, as well as the supply for our two altars throughout the year, are supplied annually by Mrs. Stuart M. Conant, "In memory of her beloved husband and his father, a priest of the Church". Our heartiest appreciation is extended to her for her generosity and kindness in this provision.

plans of the organized groups. This is most important!

CONFIRMATION CLASS - This Class will be held this afternoon and next Sunday at 4 o'clock in the Chapel.

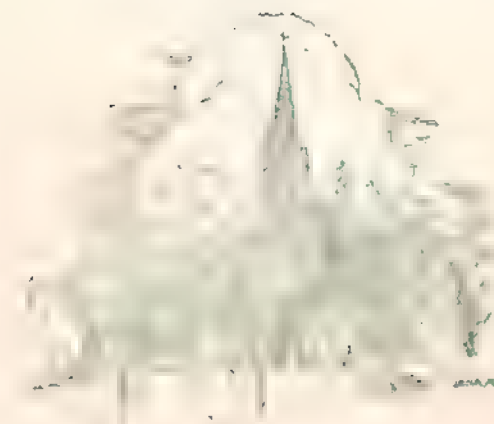

Bishop Hart will visit the parish and confirm the class on Sunday, January 27th., at the eleven o'clock service. The rector hopes a large number will come out to welcome him and the members of the class.

WATTIS PLAN - The Evening Br. of the Woman's Auxiliary are trying to raise money to help the parish with its Proportionate Share for 1952. A short time ago a list of various brands of food was inserted in this Kalendar, asking our people to save the labels or carton tops from the same and to give them to Miss Downs. The response so far has been "very poor". Won't you look up this sheet and if you use the various brands mentioned, save the labels and cartons for the Evening Auxiliary. You may hand the same to the Sexton or Miss Downs or any member of the Evening Auxiliary. This is one time we are not asking for money. You buy the food, and have the pleasure of eating it. All we want is the cartons, labels or box tops of the same. The Campaign closes March 15, 1952. Do your best! As stated above, this money will be used to help pay the Proportionate Share of the parish. Therefore, you are helping your parish as well as the auxiliary.

THEOLOGICAL EDUCATION SUNDAY - January 27th.

DUPLEX ENVELOPES - Anyone wishing to support our parish and the work of the Church at large, through the Duplex Envelopes, may give their name to the rector or Mr. William G. Alcorn and the matter will be taken care of.

THURSDAY - Jan. 17 - Celebration of the Holy Communion, 10 A. M.

+ + + + +

MUSIC NOTE:- A sufficient number of favorable comments on the use of the old Lutheran chorales as offertory music two weeks ago has suggested a repetition. This morning two of the very finest have been selected. The first is noted for its very rich harmonization; the second is interesting for the accompaniment supplied between each of the lines of the chorale melody. Originally, the accompanimental figure was played by two trumpets and typifies the exceedingly great joy of the Christmas and Epiphany Seasons.

EVENING BRANCH WOMAN'S AUXILIARY - Meeting tomorrow night at 8 o'clock. Women who cannot come in the daytime are invited to join this group.

MEN'S CLUB - NOTE the CHANGE of DATE to THURSDAY, January 24th. Speaker to be announced later.

CHRISTMAS OFFERING - We are very happy to report that the offering has increased somewhat over the amount last given. We now have $1600.89. We trust that more who have not given a Christmas Offering will do so at once inasmuch as this amount is not what the vestry needs to meet the expenses. As it has been stated before, $1800. is our goal.

VESTRY MEETING - The Regular Stated Meeting, Tuesday, January 22, at 8 P.M.

PARISH COUNCIL - Mr. Chapline, chairman of the Parish Council has called a meeting for February 12, 1952 at 8 P.M. in the Parish House. All Parish Organizations please take notice and assign representatives to be present to discuss future year, phone Miss Downs, Parish Secretary - VI 4-1203 and the same will be taken care of.

DAUGHTERS OF THE KING - Next Sunday night, (Feb. 3) the Diocesan Daughters of the King will hold a service in the Church of the Messiah, Roosevelt Blvd. and Large Street at 8 o'clock. All members of St. Peter's Chapter and their friends are invited.

SUGGESTIONS CONCERNING THE CHRISTIAN LIFE.

The Witness Card, signed by each person in the Bryan Green Mission who responded to the call of God, contained the following suggestions concerning the Christian life:

Read a passage of the Bible every day.

Say your prayers morning and night.

Go to Church every Sunday.

Determine to win your friends to a faith in Jesus Christ.

Be open and courageous in your witness that you are a Christian.

Be sure to use your influence as a Christian in all circles in which you mix.

Learn and believe these texts: - Heb. 13:5; Phil. 4:13; 2 Tim. 1:12; Heb. 7:25; Rom. 8:14; Phil. 4:19; 1 John 1:9. (The Church News)

We are happy to welcome into our "family" the parish, Miss Irene Garber.

We trust you will be spiritually benefitted by the services and enjoy fellowship with us.

BE NOT ANXIOUS - "Do not look forward to what might happen tomorrow; the same everlasting Father who cares for you today will take care of you tomorrow, and every day. Either He will shield you from suffering, or He will give you unfailing strength to bear it. Be at peace then, and put aside all anxious thoughts and imaginations".

candidate in any succeeding year. This does not apply to the Rector's Warden or the Accounting which their terms expire. The Vestry shall present to the Congregation in the Parish Calendar, the third Sunday before Easter Monday, the names of three men as nominees. The names of others

MY CHURCH

Deep in my heart I know that the Church is of God. That in spite of human frailties she has brought blessings untold to all generations, including my own. That she has made my community and my country a better place in which to live, to work, to establish a home, and to rear my children. That I would not want to live or die in a land where no church spires point its people heavenward.

I also know that the Church continues to live triumphantly even when men and nations reject her by indifference or open hostility.

In this knowledge I gladly give myself to my Church and offer her my loyal support by intelligent membership, regular attendance, generous giving, ardent prayer, and devoted service.

much needed Hymn Board and believe it will be of great service to the people sitting in the back of the church.

though that amount was set as a figure for the offering. Therefore, those who have not as yet presented an amount proportionate to their thanksgiving for our Lord's Resurrection are urged to give the same today or next Sunday in one of the Easter envelopes provided for the purpose.

ELECTION OF VESTRYMEN - Due to the change in our election of vestrymen causing the retirement for at least two years of the three men whose terms terminate each Easter Monday, and the election of three new men, we shall indeed miss the valuable and faithful services of Messrs. Harris, Lord and Dr. Hartung whose terms expire this year. In addition to the service of vestryman, Mr. Harris has served most admirably as secretary. We trust that sometime in the future after the two years lapse, they will again be elected. We are happy, however, to welcome Messrs. William A. Carbey, Richard B. Chillas, Jr. and John A. Walker who were duly elected April 14, 1952 by members of the congregation to serve for the next four years. Messrs. Chillas and Carbey have proven themselves faithful and devoted members of our parish for some years. Mr. Walker, though a confirmed member for only a few years, has been a most loyal and ardent worker. Amongst the many things he has done for the parish, he has taken over the very important work, together with Mr. George C. Pearce, of directing the activities of our choir boys before rehearsals. Mrs. Walker, too, has done a marvelous work since she succeeded Miss Winn Penny in the supervision of the lower grades of our Church School.

RUMMAGE SALE - Friday, May 9th from 10 A. M. to 8 P.M. Articles of clothing, dishes, furniture, etc. may be sent to the Parish House from now on. Mark packages "Rummage".

plants which helped to beautify our chancel on Easter Day. We also thank those who arranged the same so beautifully and effectively.

EASTER OFFERING - The amount received to date is a little over $1700. We need badly over $1800. al-him, please phone Miss Downs, VI4-1203. Inasmuch as he has served here before and the congregation benefitted by his messages and the way he conducted the services, we are sure you will look forward to his coming.

AFTER SERVICE FELLOWSHIP - The next Sunday that we shall have the pleasure of meeting you socially in the Parish House after the 11 A. M. service will be on September 21st. The refreshments will be served by our Altar Guild.

INTERIOR OF CHAPEL - For some time it has been observed that the interior walls of our chapel very decidedly need repainting. A number of parishioners have asked the rector when this work could be done. The answer is that unfortunately our parish finances are not sufficient at present to meet this expense. It is suggested, therefore, that we ask those who love the chapel and would like to have its walls redecorated, to contribute to a fund for the purpose. As soon as the amount accumulated will meet the cost involved, we can proceed with this much needed improvement. Special small envelopes, marked for this purpose, will be found in the pews on June 8th and thereafter. Make checks payable to the order of Donald A. Hilsee, Accounting Warden, specifying they are for "Chapel Redecoration". Certainly, if we all give something each month towards this, we shall soon have enough to begin the work.

YEAR BOOK - It has been most difficult this year to secure ads for our Year Book inasmuch as the prices of the same have had to be raised due to the increased cost of printing. In fact, knowing this advance would be necessary, we at first considered not issuing a book in 1952. However, because Mrs. J. J. Warren, the publisher, believed the business houses solicited would understand the situation, we permitted her to proceed with the endeavor. We should be grateful indeed to her for her optimism and work; also to those who very generously were willing to meet the advanced cost of the ads. Therefore, it behooves every member of the congregation to note carefully the different concerns that have helped to make the book a reality. We should then give them our patronage and tell them of our gratitude for helping us in this way. Please do this! This will show them we are aware of their interest in our need and it will greatly encourage them to give us their support in the future.

CHANGE OF HOUR!

A new idea proposed at the recent meeting of the Parish Council. It was stated that in many churches, during July and August, at least, the hour for the second service Sunday morning has been changed from 11 o'clock to 10 o'clock. After much discussion the majority present thought it most desirable. At a meeting of the Vestry last Tuesday the matter was brought up, discussed at length and unanimously approved. Therefore, during JULY and AUGUST we shall try out this change.
Those who favored it stated, it will give people who desire to go away for the afternoon an extra hour in the morning. If the attendance is not as large during the two months as heretofore, we shall not have it another summer. We trust, however, that it will meet with your approval.

The Rev. Ronald A. Wiley will conduct both the 8 and 10 A. M. services during July while the Rector is on vacation, and will be available for private services. He may be reached by phoning Miss Downs - VI4-1203.

CHURCH SCHOOL - Our Church School Sessions will

of God or as a memorial. Surely here is a way either objective could be beautifully met and at the same time be a very real benefit to our church! If you are interested and will speak to the rector he will be happy to go into the matter of prices, etc.

PATIENCE HAS ITS REWARD - After waiting two years to have the garage painted, it has been finally accomplished. Messrs. Albert Stewart, Albert Rittenhouse, Joseph Watchorn, Fred Schweitzer and Bob Haviland spent Saturday, Sept. 13 doing this. They are heartily thanked for giving their time and effort.

MEN'S CLUB EXECUTIVE MEETING - September 25th at 8 o'clock in the Parish House.

FELLOWSHIP PERIOD - Immediately after this service all are invited to go to the Parish House to enjoy a short time of fellowship together and refreshments that will be provided by the Altar Guild of our church. Certainly, we welcome this opportunity to know each other better.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETY - The opening meeting of this group of young people from 15 years and up will occur on September 28 at 8 p.m. in the Parish House. It is hoped that not only the members of last spring will be present but also many others who have not been members. We regret to state Mr. Lawrence Crosson cannot continue to guide this group in their activities. Mrs. Clayton C. Adams, who has had considerable experience with young people, has very kindly consented to begin the work on the 28th.

RUMMAGE SALE - Date will be announced later! If you are house-cleaning now, you may bring clothing, dishes, books, etc. to the Parish House. Mark them "Rummage".

A TRAGEDY - We regret exceedingly we cannot have our chancel decorated with the red in commemoration of St. Matthew's Day. Recently the members of the Altar Guild and I decided to have the red and purple super-frontals (the portion of silk decoration suspended in front of the altar), the pulpit fall (the silk suspended in front of the pulpit) and the Holy Bible markers cleaned by what we believed to be a reliable dry cleaning establishment. We did this because after being used for approximately thirty-four years they had become quite soiled. When they were returned they were damaged beyond use and cannot be repaired. While the red set is not used frequently (only on Whitsunday and days commemorating saints who sacrificed their lives for the cause of Christ), the purple set is used during Advent and Lent and at the time of funerals in the church. We, therefore, need to re-furnish our chancel with these sets and the purple one in the very near future. Through the kindness and generosity of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Urweiler, we are to be given a new red set in memory of the mother of each. Upon inquiring of Mr. T. J. Cuthbertson, a member of our parish who has a business that supplies ecclesiastical furnishings, the rector has found the price of a new purple set. Unfortunately, the parish treasury at the present time will not warrant us purchasing it. A special offering could be taken. However, before we do this it has been thought well to give some other family or individual the opportunity of presenting it as a thank-offering for some special blessing no better way than to give generously to the Special Offering called for by the Vestry for this beginning Sunday of our fall and winter season. With the extraordinary bills presented to the Vestry due to the alterations of the Chapel Building, etc. we certainly need it in order to clear our indebtedness before the end of the year. Therefore, let us remember this when the offering is taken this morning.

RUMMAGE SALE - The Woman's Auxiliary will hold the Fall Rummage Sale in the very near future. If you have clothing, dishes, books or any other articles you wish to dispose of, send them to the Parish House and mark them "Rummage".

ADVANCE NOTICE - MEN'S CLUB - Thursday, October 16th in the Parish House. Mr. Robert T. McCracken will be the speaker. All men and their friends are invited.

TURKEY DINNER - NOVEMBER 6TH - Reserve this date and tell your friends about it.

The 29TH WATTIS PLAN has now been announced and the Evening Branch Woman's Auxiliary will be glad to tell you about it. The saving of certain labels and carton tops will bring money to your church through the Evening Auxiliary. Let everyone help!

RE-DEDICATION SUNDAY OFFERING - As an outward and visible sign of giving ourselves whole-heartedly to God through the Prayer of Rededication, there is was elected to serve the unexpired term of Mr. Ward. Mr. Rath has been with us for a number of years and has been most loyal to St. Peter's Church and our Men's Club. He served faithfully on the vestry in the parish from which he came. Thus, we can be sure he will be a valuable addition.

CHURCH SCHOOL SECRETARY - Due to Mr. and Mrs. Gauthier going to South Carolina the office of secretary of our Church School became vacant. Mr. Gauthier had served faithfully since the resignation of Mr. William Carbey. We have been fortunate in securing as his successor, Mr. Clifford Wollard, who is also our new Crucifer.

ST. PETER'S ORATORIO RECORD - Last January, 1952 the entire "Messiah" performance was recorded. From this tape a selection of the fourteen best choruses was made and put on a 12" microgroove long playing record. Included are some of the most familiar choruses, "And the Glory", "Hallelujah", and "Surely He hath borne". This record has been receiving considerable acceptance for its extremely high fidelity of organ and chorus recording. It was used at the New York City and Chicago Audio Fair as a demonstrator record. This record is available to any one at a pre-release price of $4.50. It would make a welcome gift to a musical friend at Christmas or a memory of the sounds of chorus and organ at St. Peter's Church for yourself. See Mr. Chapline after any service in the choir room.

OFFERTORY: "Greater Love Hath No Man" Ireland

Many waters cannot quench Love, neither can the floods drown it. Love is strong as death.

Greater Love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

Who His own Self bare our sins in His own Body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins should live unto righteousness.

Ye are wash'd, ye are sanctified, ye are justified in the Name of the Lord Jesus;

Ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation. That ye should shew forth the praises of Him Who hath call'd you out of darkness into His marvelous light.

I beseech you, brethern, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies, a living sacrifice, holy acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

ELECTION - Although there is no connection between the Church and State in this country, the Church is and always has been a firm advocate of good citizenship. This includes the exercise of the high privilege of casting a ballot on Election Day. Our ancestors struggled for centuries to obtain this priceless privilege. The people of other nations who have recently acquired it, exercise it up to ninety per cent of the electorate. If we fail to do so, we may lose it some day. Should that happen, we will lose our freedom. There is no excuse except serious illness for the failure to vote. Please remember this on November 4th.

Robert T. McCracken, Esq.

It is always encouraging to hear one of their number tell of the remarkable advance our Holy Bible is making throughout the world and the conversions to Christ it is bringing. We do hope everybody who can possible do so will attend on December 7th at 11 A.M.

CHRISTIAN LIVING CONFERENCES - Reserve the evenings of January 13-16 to attend a most helpful series of meetings on Christian Living to be held at Germantown Academy.

The open door of our Chapel is a challenge to all who pass by. It welcomes all who will take themselves apart from the busy world to be still and to be with God. The poetic soul may say, "Only in the beauty of words do I find God;" the naturalist, "Only in the great open spaces can I be with God;" the critic will most often say, "I can be with God better on the outside than in church with the hypocrites and sinners;" the true Christian says, "Thank God for the Open Church, the Church with open doors, where hypocrite and sinner and saint may come to mend broken lives and refresh one's spirit with God."

Hear my prayer, O God, incline Thine ear!
Thyself from my petition do not hide!
Take heed to me!
Hear how in prayer I mourn to Thee!
Without Thee all is dark, I have no guide.
The enemy shouteth, the godless come fast!
Iniquity, hatred upon me they cast!
The wicked oppress me, ah, where shall I fly?
Perplexed and bewildered, O God hear my cry.
My heart is sorely pained within my breast,
My soul with deathly terror is oppressed,
Trembling and fearfulness upon me fall.
With horror overwhelmed, Lord, hear me call!
O for the wings of a dove!
Far away would I rove!
In the wilderness build me a nest,
And remain there forever at rest!

ing zeal of the saints who shed their blood as martyrs. It will also be used on Whitesundays to remind us of the "cloven tongues like as fire" symbolic of the Holy Spirit (Acts 2:3) that rested on the apostles the first day of Pentecost.

The purple adornments used today were given to the Glory of God by Mrs. Helen Shoemaker and "In loving memory of her husband, Joseph M. Shoemaker" who entered Paradise September 23, 1948. He was for years a most faithful and helpful member of the parish, and the Secretary of our Vestry. This set will be used during every Advent to remind us of the penitence we should show forth in our lives in preparation for our Lord's Second Coming, and in Lent in penitential remembrance of His passion and death, as well as to symbolize His royalty. It will be used also at all funerals held in the church.

MEMORIALS - St. Peter's Church is most fortunate in being presented today for blessing and use two magnificent sets of adornments in the way of superfrontals, pulpit falls and Bible markers for the lectern. We wish to take this means of sincerely thanking the donors for their thoughtful and generous gifts.

The red set was presented to the Glory of God by Mr. George H. Urwiler "In loving memory of his mother, Margaret A. Urwiler" who entered Paradise October 5, 1910. This set will be used for the first time on Holy Innocents Day, December 28th.
and on all days thereafter commemorating the burn-

tenth of what He gives us of our money was discussed at length. The man who had been tithing and thus following the Biblical request for this amount met, to a great extent, all the arguments against it. However, one question was put forth that needed to be answered, - if a tenth of the whole income was to be returned then what about the support of the one hundred and one charitable causes such as that of the Red Feather, Red Cross, etc.? How were they to be met? Were gifts to these to be taken out of the income over and above the tenth given to the Church?" The man who tithed answered it in this way. He said he retained one tenth of the tithe for that purpose. In other words, if he received $4000. his tithe would be $400. and of this he gave $40. for charitable causes outside of the Church. A man who had been listening and weighing all that was said finally offered his opinion. He believed the whole tenth of his income should be given to the Church and the amount he would give to other worthy objects would be out of the remaining income. He had apparently read our Lord's saying about giving and doing more than is expected of us, such as that about the Good Samaritan who not only took the beaten and robbed traveler to the nearest inn, but also told the inn-keeper, "Whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come again I will pay thee." Just which one of the two men do we follow - the tither who does only that which is expected of him or the tither who really makes a sacrifice as well? Let us consider this in our pledging for 1953. Pledge Cards may be obtained from the Parish House or any of the Vestrymen.

COMING EVENTS

WHAT ARE THE CHRISTIAN LIVING CONFERENCES? They are planned to make our parish a stronger and better parish. 2. They are planned to show us the "power" of a really Christian congregation.
3. They hope to accomplish this by (a) clearing up many questions people have been asking as to WHY fortunately this work has not received as much fame in this country probably being overshadowed in popularity by Handel's "Messiah". The Bach work, however, is more appropriate at this annual season than "Messiah", since the latter work deals with the entire life of Christ, not just the Nativity. The date for the performance was purposely chosen late so that many of the personal obligations which are so heavy at Christmas time will not stand in the way of attendance. You may not know the work, yet you will find it is vigorous, imaginative and descriptive. You will also find some of the Chorales familiar. One of the particular attractions of the performance is the use of the harpsichord, the classical keyboard instrument used in Bach's day. By performing this work here at St. Peter's and by coming out to hear it, we are helping to introduce and become familiar with one of the great works of all music.

BAKED HAM DINNER - January 22nd. Tickets $1.50 for adults and $1.00 for children under 12 years. Tickets will be in the mail soon.

MARCH 3RD - 8 P.M. - The rector urges all men to put this date on their calendar to hear a most informative lecture on the "Sacramental Life in the Church" by the Rev. J. V. Langmead Casserley, D.Litt. A. K. C., professor of Dogmatic Theology at General Seminary. Clergy and laymen of the diocese are invited.

APPRECIATION - The rector and his father were deeply touched and consoled by the many and beautiful expressions of sympathy sent them by members of the parish in their bereavement. They wish to take this opportunity to thank all who sent them.

IF YOU HAVE NOT TAKEN YOUR BOX OF DUPLEX ENVELOPES WHICH ARE IN THE REAR OF THE CHURCH, PLEASE DO SO AND THUS SAVE THE CHURCH THE EXPENSE OF MAILING THEM TO YOU.

talent into the plans for the activities or super help needed.

MARCH 22nd - (Passion Sunday) 11 A. M. we are to have the privilege of hearing a converted Rabbi of the Jewish Faith, Mr. George Benedict, who will tell us the back-ground of the Passion of our Lord.

The Rev. Alfred W. Price, D.D., rector of St. Stephen's Church, Philadelphia has written the following:

"George Benedict, for many years a rabbinical leader of the Jewish people, by the works of peace he is achieving, is showing himself at once a Christian statesman and a true friend of his people. His strong love and passion for the Jew brought him to the conviction that all the hopes and ideals of his people are realized in and through Christ and in no other way. From the earliest times a Zionist, he believes that Israel's return to Palestine is only the first step. That her God-appointed mission as God's Chosen People remains. That there in the Holy Land she will find her final place in the divine plan. By her sincere acceptance of Jesus Christ as the promised Messiah, as her personal and racial Saviour, to become the greatest evangelizing force the world has ever seen.

There, from South-West Asia, to cause the light of Him who is the Light of Jew and Gentile to shine over the wide world, and thus bring about the New Man, the non-warring greater nobler man. The man foretold by St. Paul, the great Rabbi of old, in his letter to the Ephesians 2:11-22.

George Benedict is a dynamic speaker, a great soul who has a burden for all who are oppressed, and an authoritative interpreter of both Old Testament and New Testament, each in the light of the other."

FLOOD RELIEF - Special plates will be found at each door for such offering as you may wish to give to help bring aid to the flood victims in England, Holland, etc.

A C H U R C H

A Church is just what its members are, nothing more, nothing less. A church cannot rise above its people. If it would be a better church in character, in attendance, in the things that money can buy, then its people must be better in character, in attendance, and in Christian giving. The members of a church can make their church what they would like it to be. They can do this by measuring up to those aims themselves. Any criticism of our church is a criticism of ourselves. Yes, we are our church. It is what we are. Let's make our church the most wonderful church on earth.- Baptist Bulletin Service.

Yes! and still Thy patient Heart is yearning
With a love that mortal scarce can bear.

THE LORD IS RISEN! HE IS RISEN INDEED!

Eternal Life is the gift of God. Here is a statement which runs counter to the mood and the conviction of many people. Some moderns would say that eternal life is our inalienable right as human beings, others would declare that eternal life is something we earned for ourselves. We are self-made heirs of God. Thus to many, Eastertide carries no note of overwhelming joy or of profound gratitude. To the true Christian, however, the great experiences of life to which he responds are not rights or just rewards, they are the gifts of God. The world of nature, the beauty of the rose, or of the sunset, life, natural endowment, family—to mention only a few, these are constant causes of thanksgiving. There is a sense of wonder and of humility. Especially is this true at Easter. Despite all our failure and weakness, in the Resurrection of Jesus Christ, God has opened unto us the gates of everlasting life. In humble gratitude we re-dedicate ourselves, as with joy we repeat the old but ever new message, "The Lord is risen. He is risen indeed."

 Holy, Holy, Holy.

 more and is to come.
 Now Blessing and Glory, wisdom, honor be to our God for evermore.

ELECTION OF VESTRYMEN - The annual election of three gentlemen to serve on the vestry for four years will take place Monday (tomorrow) between 4 and 8 P.M. in the Parish House. Those whose terms expire are Messrs. William C. Alcorn, Donald A. Hil-see and Albert Rittenhouse. Under the terms of the amendment to our By-laws, October, 1952, "No vestry-man except the Rector's Warden and Accounting Warden may be a candidate for re-election for two years after the expiration of his four year term". Mr.
 Hilsee being the Accounting Warden, his name can appear on the ballot sheet together with Messrs.

attended the services in Lent, particularly Holy Week and Easter, and then to note the decided slump in the attendance at services afterwards. It would seem that the love of Christ, expressed in His great sacrifice and victorious rising from the dead, should move us to the same faithful worship of Him throughout the rest of the year. Let us show God that our hearts have been touched by Christ's sacrifice by not only an improvement in our every day life but also by a faithful remembrance expressed in coming to church more faithfully.

RUMMAGE SALE - Friday, May 8th from 10 A. M. to 8 P. M. Articles and packages may be sent to the Parish House from now on. Mark them "Rummage".

The HOUSE OF REST Building Committee is anxious that the project of a Chapel be brought to the attention of the parishes in our diocese. Anyone in our parish wishing to contribute, may do so through Mrs. Vogt or Mrs. Walter H. Rossmassler. Make checks payable to "The House of Rest for the Aged - Building Fund".

"DUTIES OF MAGISTRATES" is the title of a discussion to be held by The Christian Assembly for Political Information & Action in the Parish House of the Unitarian Church, Lincoln Drive near Wayne Avenue, Thursday, April 16th at 8 P.M. Judge Nochem S. Winnet and two local Magistrates running for office in the Primary Election will participate. The aim of "The Christian Assembly" is to bring constructive influence of church members of our community into government.

We are happy to welcome into our "family" the parish Mrs. Herbert E. Kelley.

We trust you will be spiritually benefitted by the services and enjoy fellowship with us.

This group appreciates all that the few members of our parish did toward saving labels, etc. for the Wattis Plan. However, they only received a Consolation Prize of $10.00 again this year.

THURSDAY - Celebration of the Holy Communion,
10 A. M.

+ + + + +

APPRECIATION - Our sincere thanks is extended to all who contributed so generously towards the supply of Plants and Flowers for the decoration of our church on Easter Day and the distribution of the same to those who were unable to attend the services. Especially, are we grateful for the donation of lillies and loan of some of the beautiful azaleas, etc. given in loving memory of Mr.
Samuel F. Houston, son of the founder of our parish. Many who attended the services have already expressed themselves as to how beautifully the church was decorated; and those who have received the plants or flowers are most deeply appreciative of them. The underlying significance of this matter is that there was a splendid cooperation on the part of all who made magnificent our House of Worship on the great Festival.

EASTER OFFERING - The amount received to date is $1740.21. This does not represent the offering from everybody of our membership. A number of Easter Envelopes have not been turned in as yet.
We trust you will bring or send them in directly that we can have the $1900.00 we anticipated.

ELECTION OF VESTRYMEN - At the election of the vestrymen held in the Parish House on Monday last between 4 and 8 o'clock, the following gentlemen were duly elected for a period of four years:
Messrs. Donald A. Hilsee, Roger Conant and Clifford E. Wollard. The rector and vestry are happy to welcome these men to the official body of our parish.

AFTER EASTER - It is so strange, a real mystery to all the clergy, to note how well the people plant and the girls enjoyed some of their fine chocolate milk and ice cream.

This group meets Friday afternoons from 4 to 5 o'clock in the Parish House.

UNITED THANK OFFERING - The Annual Presentation of this offering from our diocese will take place Monday, May 18th at 10 o'clock in the Church of the Holy Apostles and the Mediator, 51st & Spruce Streets. Our women will receive notices regarding this from Mrs. Herbert E. Kelley and Miss Elizabeth Carbey, our parish custodians.

The HOUSE OF REST Building Committee is anxious that the project of a Chapel be brought to the attention of the parishes in our diocese. Anyone at St. Peter's wishing to contribute, may do so through Mrs. Vogt or Mrs. Walter H. Rossmassler. Make checks payable to "The House of Rest for the Aged - Building Fund".

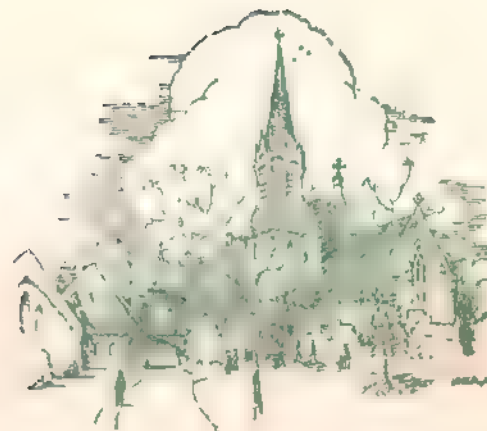

PLEASE - "Are there any empty seats in your automobile on your way to worship on Sunday? Many persons would come to the services if someone were thoughtful enough to call for them. See the rector for their names".

PLEASE NOTE - If you are not a member of the Episcopal Church, and have no church home, we invite you to become part of St. Peter's Parish Family. If you are willing to give freely of yourself to God and to the life of His Holy Church then you will find that your spiritual blessings will be great indeed.

The rector would be happy to have you make yourselves known to him at the end of the service so he may welcome you and call upon you if you wish.

a good number came to the meeting each organization was not represented by three people. We trust hereafter the President of each organization

Let us prove that our worship of Him can be as correspondingly unchanging as His providence and care of us. When such is the case joy dwells in the souls of the faithful as an abiding resident, and other individuals noticing our unbroken attendance at worship will be led to do likewise.

Trinity-tide

Dear Parishioners:

The summer months June through September are again upon us. As you know, here at St. Peter's we try to maintain as far as possible the regular services we have had during the winter and spring. While there will be a less number to lead in the singing at the 11:00 A.M. services there will be a sufficient number to assist you to offer your praise and adoration to God. After all, we should strive to have a part in the singing as well as the praying. We have secured again, the Rev. Ronald A. Wiley, Rector of St.
David's Church, Manayunk to be in charge of the spiritual welfare of the parish and to conduct the services during the rector's absence in the month of July. If you wish to get in touch with him about any private services, telephone VI4-1203.

We trust there will be a generous devotion to our blessed Lord and the regular hours of worship during these months. Since the love of God for us does not depend upon our feelings, whether it is during the hot or the cool season, the faith-

Trumpeters of God

(FEAST OF THE CIRCUMCISION OF CHRIST)

Did you celebrate the arrival of the New Year with horns? These little horns seem like parables. In the first days of 1956 let us consider this horn-blowing.

Someone said recently that we must have a call from the Church that will echo in the world. Why do we feel that no call comes from the Church to specific duties? There is noise, there are squeaks in varying keys; but no clear call. Why do men stand idle when the Church needs their energy to lead the world to Christ? Why? Because the trumpet call is uncertain.

In most armies one man is detailed to arouse the camp each day. He is never popular! The Christian's duty is the same. The commission is given by Christ, Himself. Our message is to be: "The day has dawned; the night of sleep has passed. Each of us has received that commission. It is not reserved for the clergy. You were given God's trumpet at your baptism. What have you done with it? Some put it in a drawer; some try a tune on it once a week. They play so softly that the man in the next pew can't hear. Quite a trick! It is difficult to play a trumpet softly. But God knows we manage it. Others ask God for full directions. They await His signal to send the call to the ends of the earth or the nethermost corners of hell.

We are musicians in God's orchestra. Our duty is not to soothe but to stir, "for it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure," as we read in today's Epistle.

Rise up, O Trumpeter of God! the day is at hand!

Are You Alive?

(FIRST SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY)

The Epistle for this Sunday is a good one to reread (page 110) and think about at home. Here you see St. Paul urging us to surrender ourselves to God. We all do this—at the end of the day, when we are too tired to walk farther. We offer ourselves as a dead-tired sacrifice.

There is something wrong here. Any intelligent person will recognize the fallacy. We shouldn't offer God that portion of our lives for which we have no further use. St. Paul clearly says it must be a complete sacrifice.

A sacrifice is the offering of that which is precious, alive, beautiful and vigorous. For the half-hearted and the lukewarm our Blessed Lord had words of rebuke. He voiced forgiveness for the sinner and mercy for the penitent. Only once did His words ring out as with a whip. They were addressed to the half-hearted. The world demands sacrifice. It will continue to do so until Christian men realize the demands of their discipleship.

How wonderful it would be in the new year if we could realize what it means to be a follower of Christ. It means surrender of everything to His most holy will. Does that frighten you? I suppose it should. It frightened every saint of God. If you read their testimony you will stop being afraid, however. They all testify that when you give yourself to Him, He will give you back everything you need to enjoy life as never before. This is so, because before He gives it back, He blesses it.

To understand this is the work of a lifetime. Not to understand it is to rob our religion of reality.

"Prepare Ye the Way"

(SECOND SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY)

Recently I saw one of the traveling ice shows. As always, I marveled at the effortless way in which the performers went through their complicated routines. It all looked so easy. As the stars took the center of the spotlight other performers stood motionless beyond the pool of light. They were motionless, but you could tell that not one gyration or change of position missed their alerted attention. They were ready instantly to take their places in the spectacle. Never for one moment did they relax.

It was difficult to realize that their effortless perfection was the result of hours and days and years of undramatic practice. They were there because they had learned one of life's lessons. Chosen from thousands they had made the grade because they knew the necessity of hard and unrelenting toil.

You may not be interested in becoming a star performer. That does not matter. You must be interested in your Christian performance. Too many people play at their religion. It is hard work. All of us have experienced the shame and confusion when the spotlight of God's opportunity has sought us out for a solo performance in His name. Unprepared, we stumble and waver and prove to all who watch that we have "relaxed too long on the side lines."

The Gospel for today tells about John the Baptist, and his stirring message, "Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight." We too must prepare, if we are to walk in the way of the Lord.

Study the meaning of this Gospel message for ourselves. It is not difficult to see the truth in its teaching. We cannot enter into rewards of the Christian life without serious preparation and constant practice of the Christian virtues.

Conceited Christians

(THIRD SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY)

Today's Epistle is not pleasant reading. St. Paul warns us not to be wise in our own conceits. This little bit of his letter deals with the problem of vengeance. St. Paul is no pacifist, but tells us to live peaceably with all men.

Christian warfare is the most difficult in the world. Our weapons against stupidity, carelessness, willful misinterpretation are not as the world understands weapons. The sins which created the first Calvary are still around. To combat them we build up the complicated machinery of destruction. This is nonsense. It is up to us to decide how long the world is to remain in ignorance of the things which belong to its peace.

Faced with an army of Christian believers, conscious of their dependence upon God, the forces of evil would be bewildered and defeated. Yet, we attempt to fight the battle for the Faith with the worn-out mechanisms of discredited politics and shameless chicanery.

The lesson of each Sunday throws more light upon our vocation as Soldiers of Christ. Read over the Gospel for this Sunday. You are in the midst of the wedding party of Cana where a family had to admit their lack of wine. They admitted it to One who always could fill their need—a perfect example of surrendering conceit of ourselves that a need may be fulfilled and a situation successfully met.

We have everything to rejoice about, we who follow Jesus Christ. He is the Conqueror of the world. But one thing must be done by each of us who would follow in His train. We must let Him conquer us first.

Athletes of God

(SEPTUAGESIMA)

It would be interesting to find out what the average layman thinks a theological education is!

"What sort of education should a clergyman have?"

"Well," Mr. Average Layman would reply, "I suppose he must learn to get along with everyone."

He puts into words the prayer of all vestries. I have never heard of a course at a seminary dedicated to that. Some vestries find such a man. I find that those who aim to please all end by pleasing none, least of all their Heavenly Father. "Know ye not that they which run in a race run all, but one receiveth the prize?"

The Church shows little concern with the education of its spiritual leaders. That word "spiritual" puts people off. Those who are to lead us to God should have the best facilities for an education. This is not so. We spend vast sums on athletic sports. There is nothing wrong with this, but we should have an equal concern for the "athletes of God"—our clergy and the men in training for the sacred ministry.

The consecration of countless men and women teaching in our seminaries goes unheralded. The Church is willing to have it so. What we don't concern ourselves with soon becomes no one's concern. It is time for us to be concerned! More and more young men desire to enter upon the study of theology. Our seminaries are over-crowded and understaffed.

At this time we are given an opportunity to support the seminary of our choice—not with pious thoughts, but with our generous gifts of money. It is our responsibility to see that the best is offered in the training of our future priests.

Meditation

(SEXAGESIMA)

The ten days before Ash Wednesday provide a fine opportunity to practice meditation. The Gospel for today (page 121) provides material for this spiritual exercise. We meet once more the Parable of the Sower, or, as it has been more adequately titled, the Parable of the Soils.

Take ten minutes alone with this passage. Begin by thanking God for the opportunities which are yours of hearing His holy word and worshipping Him in His Church. Read on. Are you not struck by the abandon with which the sower casts the seed into the ground? Some of the germs of eternity scattered to the four winds of heaven fall into our lives and find an unresponsive attitude, such preoccupation with worldly concerns that they are "trodden down" by the dull feet of habit. Or else they are carried away by "the fowls of the air" to germinate in richer soils. Again consider "the seed fallen upon the shallow soil," which barely covers the surface of the rock beneath. The unrepentant heart will not allow the delicate root tendrils of God's word to penetrate.

The parable leads us to consider the two kinds of soil. One produces weeds in abundance. How like our lives! Fads and fancies, endless busyness, which leave us no time to consider the reason for it all. These are the "thorns and weeds" so luxuriant in a life capable of growth. With these the Word of God must compete. These are the "annuals," and the Wisdom of Eternity is the "perennial." Then, there is another soil—equally rich but less crowded.

That is the purpose of Lent. We can use Lent to clear the garden of our soul of the extraneous growth whose flowers will bloom but for a summer. The seed of God's truth can bring forth "an hundredfold," if it falls upon good soil in the quiet places of our hearts.

Beggars All

(QUINQUAGESIMA)

Outside Jericho a blind man had been sitting for years. This was "his" place. His ears were sensitive. He knew all types by the way they walked. Men fell into a few classes. He knew that, and pitched the tone of his request to suit whoever was coming along.

One day a strange medley of sounds reached his ears. Another Jerusalem pilgrimage? A caravan of wealthy merchants? And someone answered, "Jesus of Nazareth is passing by!" The Prophet of whom he had heard so much! "Jesus, Thou Son of David, have mercy on me." Those who stood near hissed: "Silence, fool, there'll be no money with this one!" But he cried again: "Thou Son of David, have mercy on me!" And Jesus halted and stood before the beggar.

The Son of God and the blind man shared a secret. Everyone around thought that money would silence the mendicant—answer all the wailing of a blind world. That all would understand, Jesus said: "What wilt thou that I should do unto thee?" Instantly the reply: "Lord, that I may receive my sight." Yes, they understood each other perfectly. The miracle of healing which followed should prove an excellent beginning for our observance of Lent.

Beside the highways of the world we sit. Bewilderment and darkness crowd our sight. The insecurity of our national life is matched by the blindness of our individual spiritual insight. Some would have us believe that money, that material things will satisfy our need. We know better. Our Lord knows better. Kneel before Him as often as possible during the coming forty days. When you find voice, what better words than these to utter? "God grant unto me the world made new—Lord, that I may receive my sight."

Possessing All Things

(FIRST SUNDAY IN LENT)

Lent brings us once more the challenge to put first things first, to determine what things in life are really of greatest importance to us. In a sense we are all gamblers. We take our lives and train them in preparation for the time of opportunity. At the right moment we throw our life, our experience, our ability, on the long chance. Some do this more consciously than others; but we all do it.

The story of the temptation of Christ is an allegory of the temptation of each one of us—the temptation to choose a lesser, more material goal than that for which we are divinely destined. The day will come when we must “take a chance.” If our goal is low and worthless, centered entirely on the material, than we are doomed as individuals and as a nation.

The sacramental principle can help us in this matter. Is what you strive for the outward and visible sign of an inward and spiritual grace? How very realistic our holy religion is about this! Lent teaches us that we are only trustees of our possessions. How sad to see men who have wandered so far from the sunrise of God's world that they cannot see His presence in all life—its joys, sorrows and possessions.

We quote from the Epistle for today: “. . . as dying, and behold we live; as chastened, and not killed; as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.” Here is the key to true freedom, the secret of happiness, and the poise that faces all perils unafraid. To live abundantly and enjoy life is the secret of God which He shares with us through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Christians Courageous

(SECOND SUNDAY IN LENT)

This is the worst week in Lent! Now is the time when your Lenten rule is being most severely tried! About this time in Lent you ask yourself: "Isn't this all rather silly?" You argue that because of the strain and stress which is peculiar to yourself you need a few discreet indulgences. After all, you know a lot of people who do worse things than you do.

Hell's arguments never vary: "Just study the crowd of life. You'll see lots of sinners worse than yourself." "Compared with other people you aren't too bad." The dangerous thing about these arguments is that they are so nearly true! If you subscribe to them there is only one thing I must warn you not to do. Don't dare look at Christ upon His Cross! No man can keep the flimsy garments of his self-esteem from blowing in the winds of reality which come from Calvary. The Cross speaks of the stern, uncompromising facts of Life.

Lent is given to us that we may voluntarily face the Cross of Life and renounce the distractions of the world of mortal man born to die. We turn our backs upon the easy ways of Death and gaze upon the way of Life. It isn't easy. Here is no gentle philosophy of success through self-improvement and do-it-yourself kits. "For God hath not called us unto uncleanness, but unto holiness. He therefore that despiseth, despiseth not man, but God, who hath also given unto us His holy Spirit."

Stand and gaze upon our Master on His Cross. The paradox will soon be clear. He said, "I am the Way, the Truth and the Life." A Lent well kept in devotion to Him will bring ourselves and our nation to a freedom beyond the wildest dreams of scheming men who hobble on the crutches of indulgence toward the gate of annihilation and disaster.

Hearty Desires

(THIRD SUNDAY IN LENT)

The Collect for today bares the bedrock upon which all Christians must stand. "Almighty God, look upon the hearty desires of thy humble servants." Here is reality. Here is common sense. Our "hearty desires" are the ones we can understand. They drive us all day long. On the surface they exist as our will to live and move and realize the potentialities of life. For many these are shallow at first. The "hearty desires" of a child are for food, shelter, and protecting love. Later on he adds the desire to possess that which others will admire and envy. This is attractive in a ten-year-old. It is sad at twenty, pathetic at thirty, and tragic at forty. Let's face it! We are going to have trouble with these "hearty desires" all our lives.

Christian education should exist to help us change the nature of our "hearty desires." It should change the desire for a job with good pay and short hours to the desire to do a piece of work to the best of one's ability.

There is no problem at all in our acceptance of the prayer: "Stretch forth the right hand of thy Majesty, to be our defence against all our enemies." This we like. This is the sort of thing we expect God to be doing for us continually. There is a catch, though! Those "hearty desires" of ours! If your heartiest desire is to do battle against evil within yourself and in the world, then, and only then, have you any right to ask God's help against your enemies. That's realistic. That's common sense.

When your religion doesn't make common sense be certain that something is wrong somewhere. In the words which close the Epistle for today:

"Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light."

Bread-Bread-Bread

(FOURTH SUNDAY IN LENT)

It is very easy for us to put ourselves into the picture of the Gospel for today. The feeding of the five thousand on the hillside near the Sea of Tiberias is very well known. We like that story very much. Something for nothing is always popular. How many harassed vestrymen have read of this miracle with longing—and ignorance. If only the Lord would work such a miracle for our parish! He will and He does. But not without a certain ingredient. It is present in the story. Read it carefully.

Many times the average member of the congregation asks himself: How long must I work for the Church? Will the time ever come when we won't be raising money for something?

Wouldn't it be fine if you found yourself in a church group that had no worries about money? Of course, you would have to leave that church immediately. Why? Because there would be no Christians there.

Our hopes and dreams must be no narrower than the world—the feeding of the world with the Bread of Heaven. To do that will take every resource, every clever scheme, every bit of ingenuity we can dedicate all the days of our life.

So the world today looks to us for food which will never fail, strength which will never falter. Meditate upon the miracle and end your meditation with these words: "There is a man—there is a woman—here who has but a little to give—but who gives that little unto Thee."

Avoid the Face

(PASSION SUNDAY)

The last line in today's Gospel (page 133) is amazing. Jesus of Nazareth had just announced that He and God were One. His words stung to fury all who listened. That part of their nature which resisted all change cried out in anger against the challenge of His presence. They liked to hear speakers, and "never man spoke as this man." They liked to see miracles performed; they liked to argue and reason. No other race under Heaven could discuss religion so thoroughly. Jesus did all these things superlatively well. He was kindly and companionable. From the radiance of His face there shone a glow that warmed the hearts of all with whom He came in contact. It was all very pleasant.

It was also very disturbing. If God was what He was, then all the great legalistic hedges behind which they had retreated were as children's castles on shifting sand. If, in knowing Him they knew God, then the reverse would be true. In knowing them, God also knew the secrets of their hearts. How awful was the realization! It blew in upon the calmness of their thoughts like a blast of winter's air. It chilled the exotic flowers of thought and fancy; it froze the sluggish rivulets of habit. They stood alone, before the Face of God!

How would you face that experience? As you follow in the crowd, who for the next two weeks will watch the Passion of the Son of God, can you avoid sharing their horror and fear? Remember the last sentence in the Gospel for Passion Sunday: "Then took they up stones to cast at him; but Jesus hid himself and went out of the temple."

Journey to Salvation

(PALM SUNDAY)

Jesus had been in the home of Martha and Mary at Bethany. He had raised their brother, Lazarus, from the dead. This was on everyone's lips. As Passover pilgrims streamed into the city they reviewed the things they must see. The Temple was the first thing to see. Some of the younger men resolved to see the Roman theatres and baths. They kept this to themselves. Their elders would never approve. Then they must get a look at the Prophet of Nazareth. So much to do!

Bethany was four miles from Jerusalem, a comfortable walk. A group from the Holy City left to make good their resolution to see and hear the silver-tongued Prophet of Nazareth. They picked palm branches as they went along. If all that had been rumored of Him was true! It would make this the most exciting Passover of all.

What luck! As they approached Bethany they met the procession. Jesus, the Son of David, riding on a donkey! The significance of the whole thing struck them instantly. Hosanna, Hosanna! It was a spontaneous, thoughtless thing.

All this accolade must have been a mixed melody to the ears of Jesus Christ. In reply to a suggestion that these people curb their enthusiasm, hear Him say: If these should hold their peace the stones would immediately cry out." He is conscious of two great facts. He loved every member of this throng as no one else would ever be capable of loving them! He knew, on the other hand, their great ability to miss the chance of salvation. Here was God's gift of free will to sinful man asserting itself in the Face of the Eternal Goodness. This brief moment of triumph had at its core the seeds of tragedy: "He came unto his own, and his own received him not."

Tho' weary and worn with the merciless scorn

Of a world He has come to spare.

The burden of wrong that earth bears along:

Past evil and evil to be,

All sins of man since the world began,

They are laid, dear Lord, on Thee.

Then on to the end, my God and my friend,

With thy banner uplifted on high!

Thou art come from above in thy power and love,

To endure and suffer and die!

(EASTER DAY)

The first day of the week cometh Mary Magdalene early, when it was yet dark, unto the sepulchre, and seeth the stone taken away from the sepulchre. Then she runneth, and cometh to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple, whom Jesus loved, and saith unto them, They have taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre, and we know not where they have laid him. Peter therefore went forth, and that other disciple, and came to the sepulchre. So they ran both together: and the other disciple did outrun Peter, and came first to the sepulchre. And he stooping down, and looking in, saw the linen clothes lying; yet went he not in. Then cometh Simon Peter following him, and went into the sepulchre, and seeth the linen clothes lie, and the napkin, that was about his head, not lying with the linen clothes but wrapped together in a place by itself. Then went in also that other disciple, which came first to the sepulchre, and he saw, and believed. For as yet they knew not the scripture, that he must rise again from the dead. Then the disciples went away again unto their own home.

Abide With Us

(FIRST SUNDAY AFTER EASTER)

It is amazing how we can take a text from the Bible and turn it completely around! A good example is illustrated by the story of the walk to Emmaus. It was the afternoon of the first Easter Day. Two bewildered followers of Jesus were returning to their home. They were in no hurry. They knew the ridicule that awaited them! A Figure overtook them. He chided them for their depression and illustrated His remarks by quoting the Scriptures. It was "just what they needed," we would say. And they asked the Stranger to come into their house because evening was already darkening the sky.

The Stranger took bread and blessed it—and vanished. He was a Stranger no longer. Putting on their cloaks they hurried back to the Holy City. They had seen the Lord!

You know the hymn, "Abide with me." It is a lovely hymn; but it is a dangerous hymn. It has taken the words of the two disciples: "Abide with us" and turned them around completely. They said, "Abide with us" so that they could put all their hospitality and comforts at the Stranger's disposal. We sing, "Abide with me" and ask Him to put everything at our disposal.

"When other comforts fail." They weren't thinking of their comforts, but of His.

"Hold Thou Thy Cross before my closing eyes." That is wonderful for the dying—not for the living. "Hold Thou Thy Cross before my opening eyes. They have been closed too long. Then I may serve Thee and not ask Thee to serve me."

Hitch-Hiker or Pilgrim?

(SECOND SUNDAY AFTER EASTER)

We all seek a better world. We all make the mistake of supposing we can reach it in comfort. We would all like to ride to glory—with someone else supplying the transportation! We look at the wrecks of men's hopes by the wayside. So splendid they were—so glittering—so modern. Yet they were no match for the twisting, tortuous path of life. The sight makes many cynical.

Yet each generation is capable of producing a few realistic souls. They tramp the thorny path—on their two feet. Neither the heat of the sun, nor the cold strangeness of the night discourages them.

Youth must be taught this lesson. Only the Church can do it. That means all of us. The outward and visible must reflect the inward and spiritual. The cheap short-cut, the easy way, must have no place in your life nor mine. It has no place in the life of a practicing Christian. Youth can only learn from you.

Pray for those setting out upon life's highway. The road is always long. The way is always rough. You cannot change that. What you can do is nurture within them a spirit of moral resilience, an atmosphere of spiritual reality. False hope breeds despair. There is one Hope—and one Hope only—our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. "For even hereunto were ye called: because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps."

verdant landscape flow.

Though in a bare and rugged way Through devious lonely wilds I stray, Thy bounty shall my pains beguile; The barren wilderness shall smile with sudden greens and herbage crowned, And streams shall murmur all around.

Permanent Joy

(THIRD SUNDAY AFTER EASTER)

The line which ends the Gospel for today was one which was whispered in the anterooms of many an arena before the early Christians faced death for their faith. They said it over to each other and light came to dispel the darkness of fear and terror: "And ye now therefore have sorrow; but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you."

Don't let familiarity with those words lead you to be indifferent to them. That which was a light in their darkness can also be a beacon in our confusion.

The world has offered us many joys and pleasures. We give ourselves over completely to their pursuit. In the quiet of the church this Sunday think over some of these joys and pleasures. "Not as the world gives, give I unto you." We all pursue permanent joy. It is right that we should do so. It is our heritage to seek security. It is "born in us."

Our error has been that we have sought security and permanent joy where such things cannot be found. Here in God's Presence is our joy and our security. Here is no dull sense of duty—no lip-service to an old tradition. Here is a joy which no man, no accident nor fickle fortune, can possibly take from us.

Breast the Wave

(FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER EASTER)

Last year's vacation brought me to a rocky coast by a pounding sea. The dramatic sweep of the great waves, laced with foam as they crashed upon the shore, reminded me of the Collect for this Fourth Sunday after Easter. You will find it on Page 174 of your Prayer Book.

If one could harness the power behind the curling breakers, what energy could be stored which now is lost! The restlessness in the heart of man is also a power which must be utilized. Left unleashed it is capable of breaking him upon the rocks of life in spent and futile fury.

The power within man for his own destruction contains qualities which could save the world. The "unruly will" is a will and a power. "The affections of sinful men" are still affections which can be used for loving an unloved world.

The difference between a saint and a sinner is not the difference between a placid pool and a crashing ocean. The Devil would like us to think that way.

God's man is one who has power and drive; one who is conscious of his potentialities to create—or destroy. Yet he has surrendered his powers of destruction to One who "alone canst order" them. Then the direction of life becomes fixed "where true joys are to be found."

The Rainmaker

FIFTH (ROGATION) SUNDAY AFTER EASTER

This is the first of four special days when prayers are made for God's blessing upon the growing crops. In early days this was an occasion for great pageantry.

We live today in an age of hybrid germination, crop rotation, and contour plowing. Before these we bow in deepest reverence. To these we look for our daily bread. The science of farming has developed since the days when the parish priest said his prayers over the poorly planted blades of new-spring grain!

With all our knowledge do we need God's blessing upon the newly planted harvest? What is the Church's teaching?

Simply stated it is this. Any harvest, any sowing that is unblessed fails to satisfy the hunger of man's soul. All advances in every field of knowledge, being ordained of God have the power to provide man with freedom from want and fear. Yet man still stands in poverty and terror.

Grain from exhausted soil robs the feeding cattle of vitamins necessary to produce nourishing meat. The anemic faith, undernourished through a lack of the knowledge of God, is all around us. We starve in the midst of plenty. Our possessions do not bring us peace. That is inevitable. The fundamental laws of God's economy cannot be superseded by man's cleverness.

Let us pray for God's blessing upon the crops. Then at the time of the harvest we shall be nourished, not only with the gifts of a material bounty, but with the possession of a spiritual adequacy which alone can feed the hearts and souls of men.

Lift It Up

SUNDAY AFTER ASCENSION

Because the Ascension of our Blessed Lord into Heaven does not provide the business world with any opportunity for commercial gain it tends to neglect this great festival.

The Ascension marks the end of a great period of preparation. Truly our Lord's work on earth was completed. The secret of organization and the glorious spirit of perseverance had been born in the hearts and minds of His disciples. They were the plowed field awaiting the seed of the Holy Spirit. On Whitsunday we celebrate the arrival of that seed. There are many lessons to be drawn from this great event. We shall mention only one.

We are beset by earth-bound schemes and worldly terrors. Each day brings its crisis. The Ascension speaks to us of a faith in things above. With Christ we ascend above the churning events of daily life. We all must do this some way or another—or go mad. Our methods to “get above life” are as varied as our personalities—and just as pitiful. Only in rising above the clutter of trouble can we see it in its proper perspective. This is not to claim a smug superiority. Only by looking upon our lives as a part of God's grand scheme can we direct them towards the quiet hills of peace.

Whenever you pray “through Jesus Christ our Lord,” you are voicing your faith in the Ascension. In these words we lift our petition above the confusion of our troubled minds. We lift it to the Throne of God through the agency of Him who is our Saviour.

Zero Hour

WHITSUNDAY

The Spirit of God brooded upon the world of men . . .

Men in deep trenches on the Yucca Flats in Nevada, newspaper men, radio men, writers, photographers and Congressmen—men gathered to witness an instrument of cosmic power exploding with a force capable of destroying the world and all mankind. Slowly a voice ticked off the seconds remaining: "Ten, nine, eight, seven, six, five, four, three, two, zero." The heavens caught fire from the surging column of smoke and dust. The coldness of death clutched at the hearts of the men in the trenches. "God help us!" one was heard to say.

The Spirit of God remembered . . .

Men in an upper room in the City of Jerusalem, a fisherman, a tax-gatherer, ordinary men—men gathered together by common impulse in a room of great association. Here they had met and eaten with One whose power and strength had pervaded the very flesh and blood of their mortal bodies. The world was doomed. Of that they were very certain. They must show forth the force of that Life which had changed the world for them. They had been faithless, fearful and ashamed. The crowds went by them in the streets below—careless, unsaved and unknowing. Before the task their wit was small, their strength a puny thing. "Suddenly a sound from Heaven as of a mighty rushing wind—cloven tongues like as of fire—sat upon each of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost."

The Spirit of God recalled—words spoken to the hearts of all men by their Saviour and their Lord: "If thou hadst known even thou in this, thine hour, the things which belong to thy peace."

May 22

Whitsunday Collect

O God, who as at this time didst teach the hearts of thy faithful people, by sending to them the light of thy Holy Spirit; Grant us by the same Spirit to have a right judgment in all things, and evermore to rejoice in his holy comfort; through the merits of Christ Jesus our Saviour, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the same Spirit, one God, world without end. Amen.

Night Caller

TRINITY SUNDAY

As Nicodemus hurried along he was thankful for the darkness. He did not want to be seen consulting this Jesus of Nazareth. It would cause talk in the Temple. He was a "ruler of the Jews." How did one ever "rule" these people? A Pharisee, he had to reconcile his views with those of the fiery Sadducees. The tension was lessened at the moment. They had united in condemning this young prophet. Keeping peace among the various groups was like cupping quicksilver in the palm of one's hand. He was thankful for the night.

His thoughts moved on. He had once envied men who held the position that was now his. He thought of himself and of his personal struggle for power. Where were the friends that once were his? Where was the time that once seemed endless? In the rabbinical school they said he was "one to watch." He hoped that no one watched him now! The quickening pace of the years, the responsibilities of office, these left little time or place for thought. When he was young, like this Rabbi . . .

When he had been a child heaven had seemed so close. On the rooftop of his father's home his dreams had been long, his faith unconquered. He had loved the solitude alone with God. To recapture those days, if only for a moment!

This was the house. Now he would talk with Jesus. Now he would know the answer. He stepped out of the darkness into the light. It was a light of an intensity never experienced by Nicodemus before. The important things seemed suddenly trivial; the glib phrasing of his opening remarks seemed foolish. A silence fell and Jesus said, "Except a man be born again he cannot see the kingdom of God."

The B EATITUDES

Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.

Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.

Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.

Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God.

Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are ye when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake. Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

Grieve Not the Holy Spirit

(19TH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY)

These words occur in the Epistle for this Sunday. They have inspired at least one composer to write a beautiful anthem. It is tragic, however, if we set them to music—and then forget them! How does one “grieve the Holy Spirit”?

The cover of this leaflet shows a wood-cut of the Last Supper. It points up the teaching of this Sunday in a dramatic way. Here is grief. Who caused it? Judas? No. He was but a pawn. It was caused by the blindness of men's hearts. Here, in this little picture, you see the Light “shining in the darkness” and “the darkness” comprehending it not. It is the willful rejection of light in favor of darkness.

The collect for this Sunday helps us to understand all this more easily. It begins by stating the problem of sinful man very clearly! “Without Thee we are not able to please Thee.” We grieve the Holy Spirit of God when we refuse to face our own inadequacy to deal with life by ourselves. Humility is the beginning of all wisdom.

Until the self is exiled from the throne of the heart there is nothing stable to direct and rule it. We go from fad and fancy to indirection and ruin. The beginning is so simple. The end so tragic! “Mercifully grant that thy Holy Spirit may in all things direct and rule our hearts.”

The grief of the Holy Spirit is for all mankind who choose slavery in place of freedom; death in place of life.

What's Hurting You?

(20TH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY)

The problem of pain and suffering is as old as the world itself. Mankind first set up taboos and rituals to assure himself that he could escape man's common heritage. They never worked. They never will.

Today's collect meets the problem directly. In it we pray to God to keep us "from all things that may hurt us." This is wonderful! What does it mean?

If we are serious about our religion we do not need to be reminded that our task is to be "Christ's faithful soldier and servant." Soldiers often get hurt. They are trained to avoid it—and when it happens to endure it.

Too many people feel that their religion should make them immune to the common lot of mortal men. They "lose their faith" when trouble comes! Of course, you and I know they didn't have much faith to begin with. It is so easy to slip into this way of thinking.

A great deal of the language of our religion is "victory language." Holy Scripture is full of it. It is the essence of the faith of those who have endured. We like to use their shout of praise. We forget that it was always preceded by a cry of pain, bewilderment, or terror. Only out of the dark night of the soul does any true sunrise ever dawn.

What are the "things that may hurt us"? Pain? Grief? No, none of these. With these threads the saints wove tapestries of praise. The things which truly hurt us are those things which make us unable to be "ready both in body and soul to accomplish the things which Thou commandest." The only thing that can do us hurt is stubborn, willful sin.

Christian Battle-Dress

(21ST SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY)

It is a wonderful Epistle for the twenty-first Sunday after Trinity. It would be impossible in this limited space to go over each part of the Christian armor. There is just one little item I'd like to add to St. Paul's list of requirements. Do you remember the tin woodman in the Wizard of Oz? He needed an oil can to keep his suit from squeaking and rusting.

Every Christian warrior needs the oil of humor and common sense. Without it he becomes immobile—a nice ornament—but of no use in the Christian battle. Another name for this oil is the Grace of God.

It is humor or grace that will keep the warrior balanced. The parry and thrust of our battle against sin and evil is effective only when we know where the enemy is located. Like Sancho Panza, we cannot go through life tilting with windmills! We must not waste the lessons of Christian warfare in fighting for causes less than the highest.

So with St. Paul, I bid you look to your armor, become conscious of the battle. Study your manual of arms, "praying always with all prayer and supplication for all saints; and for me, that I may open my mouth boldly to make known the mystery of the Gospel for which I am an ambassador in bonds; that therein I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak."

Good Works

(22ND SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY)

Today's collect and the fact that next Thursday is All Saints' Day brings a problem into focus which bothers many. That phrase in the collect, "given to good works," and the habit of referring to some one as "a saint" no longer bring to mind a character of much attraction—or reality. We put our saints in stained glass windows, and we shun the company of "do-gooders." These current ideas are so far from the true description of the early followers of Jesus Christ!

They were a happy company whose infectious gaiety and dauntless faith attracted all men to their company. I can't imagine St. Peter saying: "I'd like to go fishing, but I have to go to church!" Nor the blessed John offering the familiar phrase: "I suppose I should help with the Every Member Canvass." They had found a new way of life and all who met them knew it. The "good works" which they did were incidental.

So when you use the prayer for this Sunday and when you join the Church in celebrating All Saints' Day, don't get the wrong idea. We pray that God will keep His Church in such close communion with Himself that His power and healing grace will infuse the entire congregation. Then the "good works" which follow will be a joy to the doer and an inspiration to all who behold them.

In humble faith and holy love,
The song of saints and martyrs sing;
That incense which to God above
Blest angels and archangels bring.

Three mystic rays in glory shine
From the tremendous Godhead's throne;
These in one source doth faith combine,
In three we praise one God alone.

In this sad vale of tears below,
Our anchor this of faith and love;
Till God his vision shall bestow,
In Christ's triumphant Church above.

To God our Father raise the voice,
Invisible, immortal King!
In our Redeemer's strength rejoice,
And to the sacred Spirit sing. Amen

Tribute Money

(23RD SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY)

The picture on the front page of your bulletin this week shows the Tribute Money about which so much is said in the Gospel for this week (page 222). Everything was set up to "entangle" our Lord "in His talk." Every Christian in every age has received the same treatment from those who would test his discipleship.

How is this done? The Gospel explains it very clearly. The Pharisees set the whole thing up with great cleverness. They started off with flattery. "We know that Thou art true." They knew no such thing! They wanted to lure Him into a position of danger. They wanted to trick Him into a public statement of disloyalty to Rome. The fawning prelude was immediately followed by the rapier thrust: "Is it lawful to give tribute to Caesar or not?" His magnificent reply: "Render therefore unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's; and unto God the things which are God's."

It was the perfect answer. They could not "entangle Him in His talk." How about you and me? We need those sentences in morning and evening. Remember them?

O Lord, open Thou our lips.

And our mouth shall show forth Thy praise.

Let Him be the guardian of our mouth. Only then can we praise Him as He must be praised.

Warriors

(24TH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY)

On Veterans' Day we think of warriors, past and present, who have served their people and their country with gallantry and courage. Caught up in the inspiration of a common cause, mankind rises to heights of service undreamed of in the ordinary walks of life. Inspired by an ideal above his grasp, man can endure hardship and trials which amaze the world. All life needs such an inspiration and an ideal; for we are all warriors in an army which is never demobilized.

Our thoughts today are particularly directed to the veterans of armed conflict on the field of battle. It is tragic that they often find civilian life so dull, so uninspired, so lacking in the ideals which "made a heaven out of an unbelievable hell."

We must in our Church's life keep alive the comradeship of shared endeavor which colors the memories of all veterans. Our tasks must always be beyond our means and our striving beyond our strength. Then will come to us all that which was their legacy in battle—the miracle of achievement beyond our imagining. Then will we discharge our duty as Christ's faithful soldiers and servants unto our life's end.

THIS IS "LOYALTY SUNDAY"

Thanksgiving

(25TH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY)

Thanksgiving Day is a time of homecoming and sentimental memories. That is good. A little preparation can make it better. It must be more than a holiday. It must be a holy day. For what are you thankful? Do you begin to catalogue your personal blessings? Our forefathers wouldn't have dared to indulge in this sort of thinking. They had very few personal comforts and privileges. They thanked God that they were still alive and in a new land. They gave thanks for the things of the spirit which they could feel budding and growing in the unfettered air of early America.

Here was a country crude, harsh, untamed and primitive. They couldn't "go home to their folks for Thanksgiving." They were here to stay. There could be no turning back for them. Perhaps that is why they had such a deep sense of their dependence upon God.

Unless our observance of the lovely day is related to a sense of God's sacramental presence in all the affairs of life we miss its real meaning. We have Him and if He has us we are forever thankful. Our heads are high. Our step is firm. Within the sweep of our vision, above the troubles and trials before us we see the eternal promise of the Victory of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Stir-Up Sunday

(SUNDAY NEXT BEFORE ADVENT)

The collect for this Sunday is a wonderful one: "Stir up . . . the wills of thy faithful people." So much of our Church work nowadays is engaged in "smoothing over." It is natural that we want peace and quiet. But because we want peace of the wrong sort we never achieve peace at all.

To smooth over difficulties is much the same as trying to put icing on an unsuccessful cake. However thick the coating, sooner or later the cake has to be eaten. The first cut of the knife reveals the state of the cake.

It is only by stirring our wills, by opening our ears to the challenge of a clamoring world that we can become aware of the will of God. It is His will that we have peace in our hearts; but that peace is never won by smoothing over difficulties. The first knife blade of adversity will reveal the state of our soul's preparation. It reveals what we have done with the stuff of our nature. In season and out of season we must constantly address ourselves to tasks beyond our resources, until at last the Christ whose birth we shall shortly anticipate has permeated the fabric of our being and the fibre of our thought.

These meditations during the past year have been written by the Rev. Gerald E. Graham, rector of St. Thomas' Church, Denver. Reprints in booklet form may be obtained from that church, 22nd Avenue and Dexter Street, Denver, Colorado.

The Light Still Shines

(FIRST SUNDAY IN ADVENT)

We have no ceremonial device in our worship more simply but profoundly expressive than the candle. In one sense, it seems a pity that our churches nowadays are so splendidly illuminated by electricity, for the candle is thus prevented from shining out into a real darkness. The candle is there in the sanctuary, of course, to remind us of Christ the Light of the world.

Near the close of the first century, A.D., St. John the Evangelist was writing our fourth Gospel, and at its very beginning he declared what was to him a most marvelous thing: for all these many years, sixty or seventy, the world had been trying to extinguish the Light of the world who had been born at Bethlehem and had died on Calvary. The world has used all its tricks and its terrors, with what result? "The light still shines in the darkness, for the darkness has not been able to put it out." (A free translation of St. John 1:5.)

Well, it was marvelous enough, in St. John's day, but hear the Gospel of the Altar candle on this Advent Sunday in 1956: the Light still shines! The world keeps trying to kill it, and failing. There are more Christians in the world today than ever before, more people who are persuaded that Christ is the world's only light and only hope.

The World's Youngest Book

(SECOND SUNDAY IN ADVENT)

Today is the Church's Bible Sunday. You cannot use it better than to study carefully the Collect, Epistle, and Holy Gospel for the day for light on what the Bible is and how it is to be used "for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope" (Romans 15:4).

Anything that Bernard Shaw ever wrote was interesting. Hear what he had to say about the Bible: "A great deal of the Bible is much more alive than the morning newspaper and last night's Parliamentary debate. Its chronicles are better reading than most of our fashionable histories and less intentionally mendacious. In revolutionary invective and utopian aspiration it cuts the ground from under the feet of Ruskin, Carlyle, and Karl Marx, and in the epoch of great leaders and great rascals it makes Homer seem superficial and Shakespeare unbalanced." Of course, there is very much more to be said for the Bible than that; but Mr. Shaw was right about the Bible's liveliness and up-to-date-ness. It is the world's youngest book. Every age of great renewal of life in our history has been an age of rediscovering the Bible. It always speaks to our condition. And through it the God of truth always speaks to us clearly and savingly, if we want to hear Him and be saved.

"Thy word is a lantern unto my feet," sang the psalmist. Is God's Word a lantern to your feet?

For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope.

He Came Unto His Own

(THIRD SUNDAY IN ADVENT)

"He came unto his own, and his own received him not" (St. John 1:11). In our cover picture for this week we see it beginning—actually, before the Lord Jesus is born. There stands the innkeeper, a Jew, a citizen of David's royal city, and so one of Christ's "own" in every conceivable sense. To be sure, he has no way of knowing that the peasant girl on the donkey is about to bear the Christ of God. But he can see that here are a man and woman in dire need of shelter. What is that to him? His inn is full of paying guests. He owes them nothing. Let them sleep in the barn. And thus it came about that the King of creation was born among the beasts of the stall.

It is a disturbing picture to the Christian conscience, for it reminds us of something we should like to forget: that our indifference to those in need is indifference to Christ. Our rejection of anybody is our rejection of Christ. Still He comes to His own—to us—in the persons of the poor, the afflicted, the handicapped, the superfluous people. To receive them is to receive Him, to reject them is to reject Him.

"Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me." (St. Matthew 25:40.)

The Lord Is at Hand

(FOURTH SUNDAY IN ADVENT)

St. Paul's joyful summons to rejoice for the Lord is at hand rings in our ears as we enter Christmas week. The Apostle's word which we translate "at hand" has a double meaning. It means that Christ is about to come to us, and it means that He is now with us and very close to us. We need not choose between the two senses of the word. Both are true.

Christ is very soon to come to us in our Christmas Communion. For weeks we have been preparing ourselves for this joyful Eucharistic, receiving Him on His birthday—if we have been keeping Advent rightly. Now He is about to come to us, as God's supreme gift to us.

But He is always "at hand" in the sense of being at our side, to share with us the burdens and the joys of life and to adorn and beautify with His presence every human experience. For the meek and lowly Jesus is the Most High God; and, as Jeremy Taylor put it, "God is wholly in every place; included in no place; not bound with cords except those of love; not divided into parts, not changeable into several shapes; filling heaven and earth with His present power and with His never absent nature; and we can no more be removed from the presence of God than from our own being."

O holy Child of Bethlehem!
Descend to us, we pray;
Cast out our sin and enter in,
Be born in us today.

GIRL'S CHOIR "O Holy Night"

O holy night, the stars are brightly
shining, It is the night of our dear
Saviour's birth.

Long lay the world in sin and sorrow
pining, Till He appeared, and the soul felt its worth;
A thrill of hope the weary world re-joices, For yonder breaks a new and glorious morn.

Led by the light of stars serenely beaming, With glowing hearts by His cradle we stand.

So led by light of star, so sweetly gleaming, Here came the wise men from the Orient land;

The King of kings lay thus in lowly manger, In all our trials born to be our friend.

Fall on your knees, Oh hear the angel voices,
O night divine, O night when Christ was born,
O night, O night divine.

Fall on your knees, Oh guard us from all danger. Behold your King, before Him lowly bend,
O night, O night divine.

Keeping Christmas Alive

(FIRST SUNDAY AFTER CHRISTMAS)

Is Christmas all over at your house? If it is, what is wrong? Undoubtedly you have heard your clergy pleading with people to remember that the Christmas festival is not a one-day affair, that it lasts for twelve days. It is not hard to keep Christmas alive in our hearts and minds, if we use this season for this purpose; and if we can prolong the joy of it so much the better for us.

But there is something we need to carry away from Christmas Day for not just twelve days but for the whole new year we are entering. It is the realization that because Christ was born in Bethlehem He is with us now and forever. The bells of Christmas proclaim the dawn of redeeming grace—the dawn, not the dusk.

So now we are about to enter a new year of grace. The bells of Christmas are the bells of New Year, and what do they say?

Ring out the old, ring in the new,
Ring, happy bells, across the snow:
The year is going, let him go;
Ring out the false, ring in the true.

Ring in the valiant man and free,
The larger heart, the kindlier hand;
Ring out the darkness of the land,
Ring in the Christ that is to be.

Wise Men from the West?

(EPIPHANY)

Professor Luccock of Yale raises the question, in a witty but searching fantasy, of what might have happened if the original Magi had come from the West instead of from the East. He fancies that three typical men of our present-day western world—a big industrialist, a militarist, and a public relations expert—hear the story of the divine Child born in Bethlehem. Each sets out for Bethlehem with his own particular professional interest in view. None of them ever arrives.

The original Wise Men from the East followed a star because they believed it was God's beacon to them, and their wisdom lay simply in their willingness to accept God's way as best. Too many of us of our world, even Christians, have the habit of making up our minds as to what is best and then asking God to bless our enterprise.

The only real wisdom is different: it knows that this is God's world, not ours.

Hymn 289

The Sin-Bearer

(SECOND SUNDAY AFTER THE EPIPHANY)

John Baptist was shocked by the suggestion that he should administer the Baptism for sinners to Him who takes away the sin of the world. We can understand his reaction, for in our own way we are still shocked by the same thing: by our sinless Lord's identifying Himself with sinners in such a way that He suffers all that we suffer. It violates all our natural ideas of justice. Let the sinner suffer for his misdeeds, let the sinless enjoy the peace they have earned, and let there be a great gulf fixed between them. Such was John's reasoning about justice, and the world agrees with him. That was why John shrank from baptizing Jesus. To do so would be to identify Jesus with sinners.

But this was precisely what Jesus was determined to do. He knew that sinful men could never deliver themselves from their own sin. Only He could take that burden of guilt upon His own shoulders and carry it away. In stooping to get under this great load, He stooped all the way down to our level. His Baptism signalizes not only the beginning of His public ministry, but His self-identification with us, at our lowest level, forever, so that we may know that whatever distress of guilt and need we are in, He is in it with us to carry our burden if we entrust it to Him.

Here is an epiphany indeed: a manifestation to us of Christ as He truly and eternally is.

Arise, shine, for thy light is come,
and the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee.
For behold, darkness shall cover the earth and gross darkness the people;
but the Lord shall arise upon thee,
and His glory shall be seen upon thee,
And the Gentiles shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising. Arise, shine for thy light is come.

Christ and Big Business

(THIRD SUNDAY AFTER THE EPIPHANY)

The scene in our picture this week is very modern and metropolitan. What does it say to you as a Christian: that modern life is organized to the glory of Mammon rather than to the glory of God? Perhaps. That is not an unfair reading of the picture. Skyscrapers, those temples of big business, dominate the landscape—not church steeples. The Church of God is not big business in our world. Let us face the truth.

But let us face all the truth. The Church of God has never been big business in our world: not even in those so-called ages of faith which we may sentimentally and romantically envy. Christ has always had to sit overlooking our cities, both great and small, brooding upon their indifference to the Salvation He offers to them. But He does more than brood upon it. He acts. He has His agents everywhere, infiltrating and penetrating those areas of human life which seem to be so impervious to His message. Christianity is a secret movement in the sense that it works quietly and always seems much less powerful and effective than it really is. Our cities and towns, our marts and shops, our schools and even our churches appear outwardly and visibly to resist Him only too successfully. But the quiet leaven of His Kingdom goes on working; and it is ultimately invincible.

Your Parish and Your Planet

(FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER THE EPIPHANY)

How big is your church? One hundred members, two hundred, a thousand, two thousand? Then it isn't very big. If you have answered the question by giving the communicant strength of your parish you have simply confused your church with your parish. We commonly do, in our thinking, our concern, our giving and doing.

Our picture today is meant to correct our perspective. Here is your parish church standing at the very center of the world. It is the only church in the picture. It is the only spiritual powerhouse from which must go out into all lands the saving power of the Gospel. This must be your habitual way of thinking about it if you are a Christian. The great Swiss theologian Emil Brunner truly says that "the Church exists by mission, as fire exists by burning." And, as another has put it: "When a church no longer reaches out, it passes out."

A parish commits spiritual suicide when it surrenders to the impulse to make self-preservation its primary concern. He that saveth his own life does not save it, but loses it. The Church began at Jerusalem, but the church of Jerusalem died because it walled itself in and tried to preserve itself. The life of the Church is out-going, not in-growing. Demand of your parish that it live.

Jesus and the Ages

(FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER THE EPIPHANY)

A recent visitor at the famous scene in today's picture found himself musing upon the permanence of this sublime memorial to Washington, Jefferson, Lincoln and Theodore Roosevelt. (The visitor was he who now writes.) Five, ten thousand years from now, most probably, people will still come to Mt. Rushmore and gaze at this joint achievement of nature's majesty and man's skill. Will they wonder about the four men whose sculptured faces they see? Will they know anything about them? Will they care? We hope so. But this we know: that no man's name lives forever. There is only one Name which is an exception. The four great Americans may be remembered in the year 10,000 A.D. The divine Galilean whose Name was old when America was born will still be remembered. Nay more: He will be alive and regnant in the midst of His people—closer to them than breathing, nearer than hands and feet.

Jesus Christ is our eternal Contemporary. Emerson wrote that "the name of Jesus is not so much written into history as it is plowed into history." He is history, ultimately. Whatever is ruled by Him lives; whatever is against Him dies. Heaven and earth may pass away but His words do not pass away; and, lo, He is with us always, even unto the end of the ages.

nineteen miles away, quite fatigued and discouraged. Therefore, I thank God that He has put it into your generous hearts to help us by making it possible for me to have a tape-recording machine to lead the people in singing their praise to God. Through the kindness and sacrificial work of Mr. Lippincott and the choir, I am certain the beautiful rendition of our hymns recorded and played over in our mission will lead the congregation to appreciate and sing the hymns we all love so much. So it is, I want to thank you with all my heart for helping me. Believe me, you have done a very real piece of missionary work by so doing, and for people right in our own country a little over one hundred miles southwest of Washington, D.C.

The Open Way

(SEXAGESIMA SUNDAY)

As we do some serious thinking about how we are going to keep Lent this year, we must be sure that we plan a definite Lenten program of special self-denial and self-giving for the good of others. Say to your soul: "I am my brother's keeper, and, God helping me, I am going to do more about it than I have in the past."

Our Lord teaches you that every human soul is your brother. The range of your brotherly responsibility is world-wide; it takes in everybody.

What can you do for your brother, to "keep" him? Three things:

1. You can give him your friendship as you meet him in the flesh. Everybody you meet needs this. There is nobody, however blest with friends, who is not poorer without your friendship. This is the way of the open hand.

2. If he needs your financial, or any other kind of help, you will give it—wisely, but freely. This is the way of the open purse.

3. You can pray for him. God "has taught us to make prayers, and supplications, and to give thanks for all men" (Prayer Book, 74). This is the way of the open soul.

Make this Lent a season of growth in the way of the open hand and heart.

Do You Really Want Forgiveness?

(QUINQUAGESIMA SUNDAY)

Our picture for today is obviously a Gospel scene in which our Lord is shown forgiving a penitent sinner. But which scene—which sinner? It is impossible to say, because Christ is always forgiving in the Gospels.

He comes to us bringing the forgiveness of God, freely and unconditionally offered. There is nothing that cannot be forgiven us, if we want it. But that condition is important. To want to be forgiven is to hate our sin, to long to be rid of it, to hunger for God's pardon and for His acceptance of us. We must be very sure that this is what we want when we ask God's forgiveness, rather than wanting only to be extricated from some mess we have got ourselves into by our own most grievous fault. And we must understand that we are giving ourselves over entirely to God's service, and on His terms, when we truly repent. One reason for wanting to be forgiven is so that God can put us to work for Himself. He can use only forgiven sinners; and if we love Him truly our desire is not to use Him but to be used by Him.

Glorying in the Cross of Christ

(FIRST SUNDAY IN LENT)

"In the cross of Christ I glory, tow'ring o'er the wrecks of time." So we sing. The Cross is the central symbol of our Christian faith, as it ought to be. But what does it mean to glory in it? The answer to this question is more eloquent in great Christian living than in any words. We may ponder the glory of the Cross in the life of Pastor Dietrich Bonhoeffer, who suffered martyrdom under the Nazis in 1945. While in prison he demonstrated a Christ-like concern for his fellow prisoners in all their needs. He lived out in deed the faith he expressed in these words:

"God is a God who bears. The Son of God bore our flesh, He bore the cross, He bore our sins, thus making atonement for us. In the same way His followers are called upon to bear, and that is precisely what it means to be a Christian. Just as Christ maintained His communion with the Father by His endurance, so His followers are to maintain their communion with Christ by their endurance. We can of course shake off the burden which is laid upon us, but only find that we have a still heavier burden to carry—the yoke of our self. But Jesus invites all . . . to throw off their own yoke and to take His yoke upon them—and His yoke is easy, and His burden is light. The yoke and the burden of Christ are His cross."

There were two men that went up to pray in the temple: One of them was a Pharisee, the other a Publican.

The Pharisee, he stood and prayed within himself, and the Publican, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes to Heaven. But he smote upon his breast and they spake thus:

Pharisee, I give thanks to thee, God that I am not as other men are. unjust extortioners or even as this publican. In every week I fast on two days and of all I possess I give the tenth part.

Publican, God be merciful to me a sinner. God, I am sinful be thou merciful to me. I say to you: This man went from thence, went down justified, rather than the other. He that himself exalteth, He shall be abased. and he that humbleth himself, he shall exalted be.

Pilate on Trial

(THIRD SUNDAY IN LENT)

What did Pilate think of the strange Prisoner standing on the dock before him? Probably Martin Luther is right: "Pilate took our Saviour Christ to be a simple, honest, ignorant man; one perchance come out of a wilderness, a simple fellow, a hermit who knew or understood nothing of the world or government." The sad thing about this is that Pilate was not the last to think of Jesus in this way. The idea is shared even by some Christians and the host of warm admirers of Jesus who think it would be wonderful if the world would follow His way. "Beautiful but unrealistic" is their verdict upon the Gospel of the "simple Galilean."

It is a shallow view, no matter who holds it. Pilate stood for a number of things we tend to consider realistic and workable: big guns, big business, big government, big compromises with truth and righteousness in the interest of "being practical." The world has been trying this way for a long, long time: long enough to justify our asking quite seriously: "When is this philosophy of workability going to begin to work?"

Jesus was not on trial before Pilate that day. Pilate was on trial before Him, and still is. And so are we, with all our concerns and works and ways.

King Forever

(FOURTH SUNDAY IN LENT)

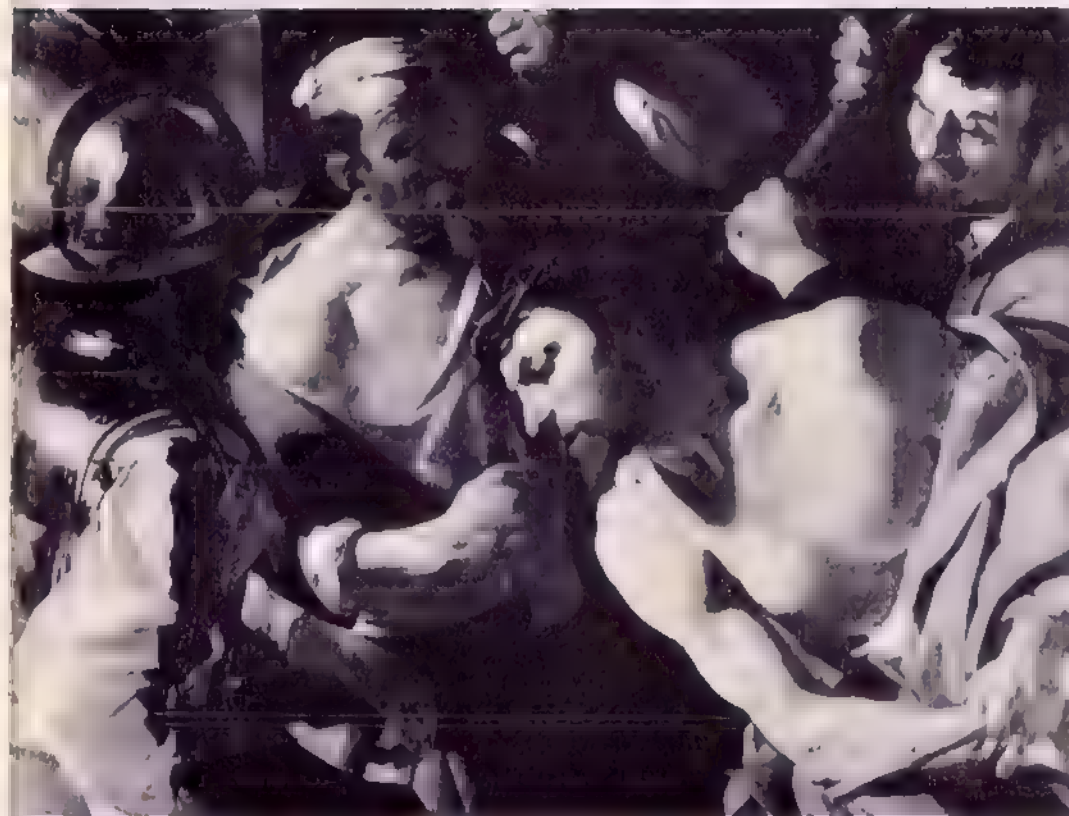

Jesus was not simply crucified. He was tortured to death. The soldiers who amused themselves with the first stage of the terrible procedure showed some crude ingenuity in the tortures they inflicted. Was Jesus a would-be world conqueror, as charged? Then let Him wear a scarlet robe, the cloak of a Roman soldier. Was He a king? Then He must have a diadem on His brow and a sceptre in His hand; so they gave Him a stick to hold and they fashioned a crown of thorns, then pressed it down on His brow until the blood spurted out in little rivulets. "Hail, King of the Jews!"

They thought they were being clever. They were in truth being unwittingly prophetic. He has made that crown of thorns a kingly crown indeed.

Napoleon was no Sunday school teacher, but toward the end of his career he was given some time to reflect upon his favorite theme—power, and he delivered this noteworthy conclusion:

"An extraordinary power of influencing and commanding men has been given to Alexander, Charlemagne, and myself. But with us the presence has been necessary, the eye, the voice, the hand. Whereas Jesus Christ has influenced and commanded his subjects without his visible bodily presence for eighteen hundred years."

It is now nineteen hundred years, and it still goes on.

The Power of His Passion

(PASSION SUNDAY)

From one point of view, it is a pitiable picture we see today. When Clovis the Frankish king first heard from a Christian missionary the story of the crucifixion he was filled with manly indignation and he exclaimed fiercely: "If I had been there with my men, they would never have done it!" He thought that Jesus was a helpless victim of human cruelty. This is a natural human attitude.

But our Lord walked into this with His eyes open. He knew toward the end that it was the only way in which He could accomplish His purpose of drawing all men to Himself: to let the powers of evil do their worst to His body. With God be the rest! God would know what to do with His sacrifice.

"Though he were a Son, yet learned he obedience by the things which he suffered; and being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him." (Hebrews 5:8-9.) The power of His passion to draw us to Him is the miracle of the ages. As we reflect upon His self-donation of love for us even to His own death we realize that this love is none other than the love of God; so the Christian declares, with Lacordaire. "A God on a cross!—that is my only theology."

Behold Your King!

(PALM SUNDAY)

Jesus was certainly not a theatrical person, in our familiar sense of that term. None the less, on this one occasion which we recall on Palm Sunday He did act dramatically. He rode into Jerusalem in the way appropriate to the Messiah-King for which His people hoped. Thus He dramatized Himself, but not falsely. He was in truth King of the Jews, the heaven-sent Deliverer of God's people, and He wanted all to see and understand.

They saw, but they did not understand. The excited pilgrims who hailed Him so ardently were expecting Him to launch a swift and triumphant attack upon the oppressors of Israel. When they realized that the only weapon He would use was the sword of love, their bitterness was blinding and maddening and they howled for His blood.

His Palm Sunday drama is for us, too, to see and understand. Behold, our King cometh unto us, meek! Are we disappointed in Him? Do we wish that He would establish His rule upon earth in some quicker way? Do we want Him to destroy all sin by destroying all sinners? We all have our moments when we do. But our King comes not to destroy but to save; and can we think of any other way than the way He takes?

What Kind of Immortality?

WE CHRISTIANS ought to be mindful of our eternal destiny all year round, but it is natural that, on Easter, our celebration of the resurrection of Christ should bring the related thought of human immortality.

Of course, Christians are not the only people who are interested in what happens after death. Following The Search for Bridey Murphy, a flash flood of books has drenched the general public with several brands of "evidence" of an after-life. By and large these books have emphasized (a) "proofs" of our survival of death and (b) speculations on the hows, wheres, and whens of our postmortal experience.

Most mature Christians regard such questions as idle and beside the point. If we are destined to live forever, the all-important question is not reincarnation, or whether wings will be worn—it is rather what kind of people are we becoming? Are we growing in love, or shrinking into self-encasement? As C. S. Lewis suggests, our present tendency toward spitefulness may not seem too troublesome, but in a thousand years it could amount to—quite literally—hell.

The Bible assures us that Christ has conferred upon us "power to become children of God." The promise of immortality inherent in Easter should remind us of the supreme importance of what we are becoming all through the year.

Education Into Easter

(FIRST SUNDAY AFTER EASTER)

We all tend to do most of our thinking about Christian education in the early fall season, when our children and youth are going back to school. It is well to give the subject a vigorous and fresh rethinking during the Easter season, facing up to one great issue in particular: the issue of what should be the aim and goal of all Christian education.

That aim and goal must be to educate Christians into the knowledge and love of the risen Lord, and into a vital communion with Him. Last week we told the story of the mother whose small son was so outraged by God's letting Jesus be crucified that he questioned the goodness of God, and who in answering him didn't even think of the Resurrection as God's great answer. The story should remind us that adults as well as children need to be taught the reality and power and centrality of the Resurrection in our holy religion. If Christ is not risen, our faith is indeed vain, as St. Paul declares, "But now is Christ risen from the dead"—and this makes a triumphant difference in our lives. Because He is alive, He can be with us and we with Him.

This is the real beginning of the Christian life, the life lived out in Christ. Does our Christian education lead us into it and make it real to us?

Altar Guild Hymn

1. We love the place, O God,
Wherein thine honor dwells;
The joy of thine abode
All other joy excels.
2. We love the house of prayer,
Wherein thy servants meet;
For thou, O Lord, art there Thy chosen ones to greet.
3. We love the sacred font,
Wherein the holy Dove
Bestows, as ever want,
His blessing from above.
4. We love thine altar, Lord,
Its mysteries revere;
For there, in faith adored,
We find thy presence near.
5. We love thy holy word,
The lamp thou gav'st to guide
All wanderers home, O Lord, Home to their Father's side.
6. Then let us sing the love
To us so freely given,
Until we sing above
The triumph song of heaven! Amen.

for the use of Members of Altar Guilds

O Lord Jesus Christ, who in love for Thy people dost give Thyself to them in the Sacrament of the Altar; Inspire us Thy servants with such thankfulness to Thee that we may rejoice to make Thy earthly sanctuaries fair for Thy Eucharistic Presence, and prepare ourselves to receive Thee with humble and loving hearts; who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost ever one God, world without end. The Good Shepherd

(SECOND SUNDAY AFTER EASTER)

The Twenty-third Psalm belongs to the Old Testament, but it belongs still more to the New. The Lord who is our Shepherd, whom we now know, follow, and love as our Shepherd, is the risen and living Lord Jesus Christ. It is He who leads us beside the still waters, who restores our souls, who banishes all fear from our hearts even when we are walking through the valley of the shadow of death.

"I am the good shepherd," He says, "and I know my sheep, and am known of mine." (St. John 10:14.) He can say this in the present tense, because His Resurrection makes it possible. We must never for a moment let ourselves think of Jesus in the past tense, except insofar as our recollection of His earthly life clarifies our knowledge of Him as He now and eternally is. We do not follow a dead rabbi but a living Lord, Friend, Companion, and Shepherd.

He is the Drover of the soul; He leads the flock of men

All wistful on that weary track, and brings them back again,

The dreaming few, the slaving crew, the motley
caste of life —

The wastrel and artificer, the harlot and the wife.

EVELYN UNDERHILL

The Lord is my shepherd: I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
Thou anointest my head with oil: my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

He Still Speaks to Us

(THIRD SUNDAY AFTER EASTER)

Throughout the Great Forty Days of the first Eastertide, after His Resurrection and before His Ascension, our Lord appeared to His disciples, ate with them, spoke with them, and instructed them in the things pertaining to the Kingdom of God. His appearances were not to a chosen few, here and there and now and then, but to many; to more than five hundred, according to St. Paul's very reliable testimony.

We are inclined to say in our hearts, "If only we could have been there at the time, when He walked the earth as Man, and we could have heard His blessed voice!" This is a very mistaken sentiment, if it means, as it usually does, that Christ spoke to people then but that He does not speak to people now. The very essence of Christianity is communion with Christ, and this means conversation with Christ. We speak to Him and He hears; He speaks to us and we hear. His words may not fall upon our outward ears, but that is not important. True conversation is not mouth to ear but heart to heart.

If you believe in Christ as risen and alive, if you trust Him, follow Him, and love Him, you can speak to Him as confident of an answer as His first disciples could. You never know in advance just how He will speak to you: whether through the Bible, or the word or deed of a friend, or more directly to your mind and heart. But turn to Him and listen, and you will hear.

Thou art sublime, Far more awful in Thy weakness, More than kingly in Thy meekness, Thou Son of God.

Glory and honour, Let the world divide and

The Growth of Lilies and Men

(FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER EASTER)

"Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin: and yet I say unto you, that even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these." (St. Matthew 6:28-29.) The words, of course, are our Lord's. Whose else could they be? They are beautiful words, but baffling to us when we are in a certain state of mind which we often describe as "practical" and "realistic." Frankly, say we, we can't literally do what the lilies do and expect to be clothed. We can't just do nothing and expect God to feed and clothe and shelter us.

But are we sure that this is what Jesus means? Are we sure that the lilies, like Topsy, "just grow"—without any effort on their part? Well, they don't. The lilies trust their Maker to provide the rain and sun and soil they need; but they, in their own way, make the necessary effort to live by what God provides. They reach out for it. And that is what our work is: a reaching out for what God sets before us. What we are to trust in, as the lilies trust, is God's sure and plentiful supply of all that we need for this life and the life to come.

In that trust, we grow, as the lilies grow, joyfully, healthily, and without faithless fears and worldly anxieties.

Asking in Christ's Name

(FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER EASTER—ROGATION SUNDAY)

A recent report by a theological commission of the Church of England, dealing with the bearing of religion upon agriculture, reminds us that the modern farmer does not rely upon prayer to get good results from his work; he relies upon scientific skill and hard work. We need not quarrel with that judgment. It is entirely true—as far as it goes. But the modern farmer or anybody else must somehow come to terms with the ultimate reality of all our sowing and reaping in this world: that what we have to work with is given to us by God.

"Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give it you," our Lord promises us in the Holy Gospel for this Sunday. The promise still holds. It does not mean that all we need to do is to sit back and ask God to do our work for us and to pour the harvest into our laps. No sane Christian of any age has ever supposed that prayer for a good harvest or any other kind of prayer works for us in any such way. But faithful and fervent prayer and thanksgiving make all the difference between feast and famine among us.

"For to ask good things of God in Christ's name means, remember, to ask them for our service of Christ; and it is only as we use God's gifts as faithful servants of Christ that we find them good for us, because they are good for all."

TRINITY SUNDAY

The observance of this day is very significant inasmuch as it rounds out or completes all the former commemorations of the year. It marks, as it were, a turning point and begins the second half of the year. The services culminate on this day; they rise to the Throne of the Godhead; for knowing the Son and the Holy Ghost we now know the Father also, and these Three are not three Gods, but ONE GOD.

The flowers on our altars for the remaining Sundays in June will be provided as follows:
June 23rd, In Church - "In memory of Mr. and Mrs.

OFFERTORY: O'Harra

Forward to Christ, all ye people
March! March! today!
Who is among us the Truth can say,
Till he has pass'd thro' the narrow way?
And Jesus said: "Why call ye me Lord, Lord and do not the things I say?"
Ye call me the Way and walk me not, Ye call me Life and live me not, Ye call me Master and obey me not, If I condemn thee blame me not. Know ye the Christ and Life are one:
Know ye the Christ-life has scarce begun?
The wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, full of mercy and without hypocrisy. And He rebuked them saying:- "Ye hypocrites, ye whited sepulchres, ye blind, leaders of the blind!"
Ye call me Bread and eat me not, Ye call me Truth and believe me not. If I condemn ye blame me not.
Who then shall scorn, who His name deride,
Till His teachings the world has tried?

GRACE

GIRL'S CHOIR "O Holy Night"

O holy night, the stars are brightly
shining, It is the night of our dear
Saviour's birth.

Long lay the world in sin and sorrow
pining, Till He appeared, and the
soul felt its worth;

A thrill of hope the weary world rejoices,
For yonder breaks a new and glorious morn.

Led by the light of stars serenely beaming, With glowing hearts by His cradle we stand.

So led by light of star, so sweetly gleaming, Here came the wise men from the Orient land;

The King of kings lay thus in lowly manger,
In all our trials born to be our friend.

Fall on your knees, On hear the angel voices,
O night divine, O night when Christ was born,
O night, O night divine.

Fall on your knees, Oh guard us from all danger. Behold your king, before Him lowly bend,
O night, O night divine.

Spring up, and bear abundant fruit.

OFFERTORY: "Now let us all right merry be" Williams

Now let us all right merry be, and with the shepherds, go to see God's own dear Son within the stall; His gift bestowed upon us all.

Mark well, my heart; look well mine eyes Who is it in the manger lies: What child is this, so young and fair? It is my Jesus lieth there.

Ah, dearest Jesus, be my guest. Soft be the bed where thou wilt rest, A little shrine within my heart, That thou and I may never part.

Praise God above on his high throne.
Who giveth his only Son. The angel hosts rejoice in this, To chant a glad New Year like this. Alleluia! Alleluia!

OFFERTORY: "What are these that are arrayed in white robes?" The Rector

Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Stainer

What are these, that are arrayed in white robes, and whence came they?

These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. Hallelujah!

Therefore are they before the throne of God,
and serve Him day and night in His temple.

They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more;

For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall feed them, and lead them unto living fountains of waters: and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

The Good Samaritan

Jesus' story about the Good Samaritan is one of the most soul-searching stories ever told. Its influence has been so great that now the highest tribute that can be paid to anyone is to call him a "good samaritan."

There is an organization, Goodwill Industries, located in over 120 American communities, fulfilling this role today. Let's look at a typical one.

The Goodwill Industries of Philadelphia, established in 1919, is a sheltered workshop and rehabilitation center. The agency exists to provide counseling, on-the-job training, sheltered employment and limited placement to an average of two hundred and forty handicapped men and women daily. Discarded clothing and household articles are collected. They are repaired by a handicapped worker and the repaired article is sold. The money received from the sale of the articles is turned back to the worker in wages.

A staff of twelve persons provides many services, including a recreation program, cafeteria, chapel, and medical and psychological services.

Goodwill Industries takes time in this busy world to minister to handicapped people who have fallen wounded by the road of life. When dignity is lost through disability, the handicapped person may find that unfortunately there are Levites in our world today, unconcerned about human tragedy. Likewise the handicapped person may find the counterpart of the Priest in a person too busy to give help to someone less fortunate. People need a Good Samaritan when they've been battered by the vicissitudes of life. Goodwill Industries is able to help people because many others have helped. When a person contributes time, money, or discarded material to Goodwill Industries he is playing the part of the Good Samaritan.

Am I a soldier of the cross,
A follower of the Lamb?
And shall I fear to own his cause,
Or blush to speak his Name?

Are there no foes for me to face?
Must I not stem the flood?
Is this vain world a friend to grace,
To help me on to God?

Sure I must fight if I would reign;
Increase my courage, Lord;
I'll bear the cross, endure the pain,
Supported by thy word.

Thy saints, in all this glorious war,
Shall conquer, though they die;
They view the triumph from afar,
And seize it with their eye.

When that illustrious day shall rise,
And all thy armies shine
In robes of victory through the skies,
The glory shall be thine.

Amen

Hymn 460, vs. 1

"What Can I Do?"

Every day we hear of someone in distress. Sometimes the need is close to home, sometimes at a far distant point. No matter where, each of us has a natural impulse to help.

And so we ask ourselves, "What can I do?"

As individuals we usually have no ready answer. Despite our interest and desire to help, we end up doing nothing.

But all of us banded together, each doing what he is able, can save lives, restore health, or bring comfort and happiness to those in distress.

This is the "people helping people" principle of the American Red Cross, through which two million volunteers provide services to all who need them without distinction of race, creed or color.

Red Cross volunteers are there to restore the shattered home of a disaster victim; to give emergency help to the family of a serviceman; to provide lifesaving blood for the ill and injured; to brighten the dreary hours of a hospital patient; to help save a drowning child.

Each of us has the opportunity to serve humanity in time of need. Anyone who wishes to serve his community can do so through the Red Cross.

Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me.

The Good Samaritan

Jesus' story about the Good Samaritan is one of the most soul-searching stories ever told. Its influence has been so great that now the highest tribute that can be paid to anyone is to call him a "good samaritan."

There is an organization, Goodwill Industries, located in over 120 American communities, fulfilling this role today. Let's look at a typical one.

The Goodwill Industries of Philadelphia, established in 1919, is a sheltered workshop and rehabilitation center. The agency exists to provide counseling, on-the-job training, sheltered employment and limited placement to an average of two hundred and forty handicapped men and women daily. Discarded clothing and household articles are collected. They are repaired by a handicapped worker and the repaired article is sold. The money received from the sale of the articles is turned back to the worker in wages.

A staff of twelve persons provides many services, including a recreation program, cafeteria, chapel, and medical and psychological services.

Goodwill Industries takes time in this busy world to minister to handicapped people who have fallen wounded by the road of life. When dignity is lost through disability, the handicapped person may find that unfortunately there are Levites in our world today, unconcerned about human tragedy. Likewise the handicapped person may find the counterpart of the Priest in a person too busy to give help to someone less fortunate. People need a Good Samaritan when they've been battered by the vicissitudes of life. Goodwill Industries is able to help people because many others have helped. When a person contributes time, money, or discarded material to Goodwill Industries he is playing the part of the Good Samaritan.

Symbols of our Faith

Our Lord's last words to his disciples: "Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost", St. Matthew 28 19. ✦ The equilateral triangle is one of the oldest symbols, first mentioned as the Trinity in the Third Century. The union of three equal sides and equal angles, resulting in but one figure, suggests the one and inseparable Divine Essence. ✦ The equilateral triangle with "Sanctus", or Holy, on each side is a later development to make the symbol more emphatic. The Triquetra—three equal arcs express the Three Divine Persons and the form being continuous, symbolizes eternity, interwoven, denotes indivisibility of the Blessed Trinity. ✦ The Fleur-de-Lis often signifies the Blessed Virgin, yet is widely used as a symbol of the Holy Trinity. ✦ The shield of the Trinity is often found in mediaeval stained glass. It consists of the words Pater, Filius, Spiritus Sanctus, or P, F, SS, meaning Father, Son, Holy Spirit in equal circles together with curving equal bands with Deus (God) in the middle circle. Reading this one cannot fail to see the meaning of Trinity. ✦ The three fishes arranged in the form of a triangle. One fish alone is an ancient symbol of the Saviour. Three fishes, based on St. John 3 16, teach that Three Persons have a part in man's salvation: (1) means of salvation, the sacrifice of the Son, (2) application of salvation through the work of the Holy Spirit; (3) the prompting cause, the love of the Father. Hence man's salvation proceeds from a Triune God. ✦ The orb with nimbus above in form of a cross represents the Church triumphant, superimposed on three touching circles of equal size which symbolize the eternity of the Three Divine Persons. This symbol is found in the catacombs.

A Motorist's Prayer

"Grant me a ready hand, a watchful eye, That none may suffer hurt as I pass by.

Thou givest life--I pray no act of mine may take away or mar that gift of Thine.

Shield those, dear Lord, who bear me company, From fools, and fire and calamity.

Teach me to use my car for others' need, nor miss through lack of wit or love of speed, the beauties of Thy world--that thus I may, with joy and courtesy go on my way."

Dr. H. R. Gough, Archbishop of Sydney, Australia keeps this in his own car as "a reminder of a Christian's duty."

WOULD YOU LIKE TO TEACH? One of the most rewarding opportunities the church offers is teaching in the Church School. If you think you might be interested, Mr. Davis would be glad to talk to you.

"DOES THE CHURCH---DOES CHRISTIANITY--- have an answer to the complex and perplexing problems that are facing the human race as a whole?"

Billy Graham

"---OR WHO has given a gift to Him that he might be repaid? For from Him and through Him and to Him are all things. To Him be glory forever. Amen."

WOMEN OF ST. PETER'S - Evening Branch- Meeting MONDAY evening, October 23rd, 8 o'clock in the Parish House.

UNITED THANK OFFERING - Parish presentation on November 12th at 11 A. M.

Motto - 1. Prayer - 2. Gifts - 3. Joyful Service from the women of the Church.

Prayer: It has been said that the most real Christian is a thankful Christian, recognizing God's hand in every good gift. Surely this gives a sense of His Presence and His loving concern. A fitting companion to the prayer of thanksgiving is the prayer of intercession that "the workers in the field" may be blessed, and enabled to make God's love known to others. One may think of the whole field, or choose a particular worker, and through happy prayer fellowship, share regularly in her work.

Gifts: An outward and visible sign of a thankful heart is the coin that goes into the BLUE BOX;
a spontaneous expression for a blessing received.
Because we are as we are, doing something definite about a spiritual experience makes it more real to us. Keeping a list of the blessings for which one has given thanks, and reviewing it at the time of the presentation service, emphasizes the truth that God does "daily load us with benefits." United Thank Offering gifts of gladness consecrated by our prayers may be multiplied, even as the loaves and fishes, and bless many unknown lives.

Joyful Service: next week.

UNITED THANK OFFERING -

Joyful Service - The fullness of thanksgiving finds its expression not only with our lips, or through our gifts, but also in our lives through our joyful service. The first gifts brought to the Christ Child were threefold, gold and frankincense and myrrh. It is easy to find a parallel to the gold of the Wise Men in our gifts. Heartfelt prayers of thanksgiving and intercession rise "as the incense"; it takes a deeper searching, perhaps a consecrated imagination, to equate joyful service with myrrh. The Biblical references to myrrh speak of it as the costliest substance of the anointing oil used in the Tabernacle...as part of the perfume in the King's garments...as a bitter ingredient to ease pain. That service which is fragrant with sacrifice, and is done in love and faithfulness, with a joyful spirit, is used of God to help ease the pain of the world and establish His kingdom.

Send or give the contents of your BLUEBOX to Mrs. Benjamin Gabler or Mrs. Walter L. Benson before November 12th when the offering will be CHRISTMAS SEAL SUNDAY- NOVEMBER 19TH. The Christmas Seal has long been a symbol of the TB crusade to the American people. For half a century Annual Christmas Seal Sales have provided funds which TB Associations have used to carry on programs of tuberculosis control. Tuberculosis is still a very serious problem - especially in Philadelphia where there were nearly 2300 new active TB cases reported last year and where the number of new TB cases has gone up 10% this year.

We are happy to welcome into our "family" the parish Miss Helen L. Pringle. We trust the services of our parish will bring her a real spiritual blessing, and that she will enjoy fellowship with us.

MEMORANDUMS & POEM

IF you had lunch in a restaurant costing a dollar, would you leave two cents as a tip? Yet, in some parishes the average gift to God is two percent or less.

$1900 additional is needed for St. Peter's Parish to meet its expenses for 1961.

THE HOLLY FAIR represents a Parish effort towards meeting the financial needs for 1961. It deserves your presence and support.

This Saturday is going to be The Holly Fair. Why, gracious me,
I quite forgot about the date.
It crept up fast. I musn't wait;
Today's the very final day
For dinner tickets. By the way,
Our deficit we can't ignore:
We're nineteen hundred dollars poor.
So, come and bring your gingerbread.
Let's get the church out of the red.
This Saturday, December Two,
The Holly Fair. Now come, please do!

Gifts for young and gifts for old,
Gifts of silver, gifts of gold,
Gifts to put beneath the tree,
Gifts for you and gifts for me.
One crisp dollar bill or less Buys a gift for happiness.
Spend a million or a dime.
Please your friends at Christmastime.
Do your shopping. You know where?
At our parish Holly Fair.

We wish to say "thank you" to Mrs. Warren H.
Davis, Jr. for the poems which have appeared in

A PRAYER FOR YOUR PARISH

O GOD, our heavenly Father, make the door of our parish church wide enough to receive all who need human love and fellowship and a Father's care; and narrow enough to shut out all envy, pride and un-charitableness. Make its threshold smooth enough to be no stumbling-block to children, to weak or straying feet; but rugged and strong enough to turn back the tempter's power.

O Heavenly Father, make the door of our church the gateway to Thine eternal Kingdom. Bless every member and worker of our parish.

May all that we do be to Thy honor and glory, the upbuilding of our parish and the extension of Thy Kingdom. May we continue Thine forever, and daily increase in Thy Holy Spirit of love and service to others, through Jesus Christ our only Lord and Saviour. Amen.

(This prayer was carved on the door of Saint Stephen's Episcopal Church, Wallbrook, London.
The church was ruined in World War II but the door was not damaged.)

or thwarted in our purpose by the rattling sabers and brutal tyranny of despots and the power lust of Godless and selfish men, but may we be ever vigilant to keep the fountainhead of freedom open that its waters may flow down through the earth and quench the thirst of those who starve for righteousness and long for liberty.

May we walk in this land uprightly and dispel wickedness by fostering righteousness. May we dissipate discord and misunderstanding with truth and brotherly love. May we combat the false and devastating premises of Godless ideologies and destroy their blighting presence in our land by reflecting the light of God and American Democracy upon them.

We pray, O God, for the men and women who constitute the fabric of our military strength. We dedicate ourselves to unselfish service and pledge to walk in the paths of righteousness that we may effectively serve our fellow man, our country, and our God. Amen

A Prayer for Armed Forces Day.

Remembering our men in the Armed Forces:
Joseph Bosworth John Burch, Jr.
Robert Garand William Steel
Clifford L. Wollard

All wise and merciful God, as we dedicate anew our military power for the cause of peace, both at home and abroad, we do so in the spirit of our forefathers who believed that mankind is endowed by God and that freedom is inherent in man's inalienable rights.

As our forefathers determined to build an island of freedom in a world of tyranny and to establish a republic which would respect the human dignity of every individual, may we be determined to share this freedom and respect with all men everywhere.

Help us, O Lord, not to be intimidated, swayed,

The following is for our information:

ASCENSION DAY - St. Augustine in A.D. 395 calls this day one of the festivals believed to have been instituted by the original apostles. Therefore in the system of our Church it is thought of as one of the very highest festivals set apart in honor of our Lord, commemorating as it does our Lord's Ascension into Heaven.

WHITSUNDAY - This day is the Birthday of the Church and commemorates the outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon the apostles on the day of Pentecost as "they were all with one accord in one place" in Jerusalem. For two thousand years this day has been observed with holy joy and deep thanksgiving for the fulfillment of our Lord's promise to send the Holy Ghost the Comforter to His people. Our special devotions on this day bring to our remembrance, in the most beautiful and striking manner the operations of God by the Spirit's power.

TRINITY SUNDAY - The observance of this day is very significant inasmuch as it rounds out or completes all the former commemorations of the year. It marks, as it were, a turning point and begins the second half of the year. The services culminate on this day; they rise to the Throne of the Godhead; for knowing the Son and the Holy Ghost we now know the Father also, and these Three are not three Gods, but ONE GOD.

This year we are going to begin what we feel is an exciting and helpful program for lay persons. It will be called, YOU ARE THERE, and is meant to implement the reality of the layman's ministry in his daily work.

The program and its impact on our lives can only be at its best as you give yourselves to it. Mr. Roger Conant, our Rector's Warden, will be the first speaker, at 8 P.M. on Tuesday evening, October 9th. Mr. and Mrs. John Scruggs will moderate the discussions following the presentations, and all present will have an opportunity to share their views and experiences.

This program will be by laymen and for laymen. All concerned adults in the parish will have an opportunity to use this series of evenings as a chance to grow in an understanding of what it means to be a Christian in the world today.

The next two meetings will be on November 20th and December 18th. Names of speakers will be announced later.

THE Anglican Congress is a meeting of Anglicans, bishops, priests, and laity, from all over the world for fellowship and for discussion of a common task. The Anglican Communion is a fellowship of eighteen regional or national Churches in communion with the See of Canterbury. The Church of England with its two Provinces of Canterbury and York is the mother Church and is established, that is the legal official Church of the kingdom. But this is no longer true in Scotland where the Episcopal Church was disestablished in the seventeenth century; or in Ireland which became a separate Church in 1870; or in Wales where its four (now six) dioceses were disestablished and a separate Church erected in 1920.

Photos: Top. Bombed in World War II, many churches in the British Isles are now fully restored. This is the restored altar of St. Mary's, Swansea, Wales Bottom This modern church is the center of a shopping center in Hatfield, Diocese of St. Albans, typical of the vibrant life in the English Church today.

THE Anglican Communion grew not because there was a plan for the spread of Anglicanism but because there was in the Church of England a real pastoral and missionary concern. Hence it is not surprising that Indian missions always have been a major element of the Anglican Church of Canada. The Canadian Church, with its twin, the American Episcopal Church, are the oldest Anglican Churches outside the British Isles and came into separate existence as a result of the American Revolution. The first bishops for New York, Pennsylvania, and Nova Scotia were all consecrated in London in 1787.

IN New Zealand, where the first mission to the Maoris was begun in 1814, about one-quarter of the 100,000 natives today are Anglicans. The Bishop of Aotearoa (Suffragan of Waiapu) is a Maori and has supervision of Maoris wherever resident in New Zealand. One-third of the white population are Anglicans, the largest church body in the Commonwealth. New Zealand has been choosing and consecrating its own bishops since the 1850s. Sixty per cent of the clergy are New Zealanders.

MARY S. GIBBS by a group of her close and devoted years was her dearest wish.

A Plaque for her pew, presented by her family will also be dedicated at this same service.

We of St. Peter's are especially grateful for these beautiful tributes to one who was so beloved, and always a leader in our midst. A devoted and active member for thirty years and president of the Altar Guild for twenty-four, her life is well expressed in one of her favorite quotations.

"Life is so full of Meaning and Purpose, so full of Beauty beneath its covering - that you will find earth but cloaks your heaven. Courage then to claim it, that is all! But courage you have and the knowledge that we are pilgrims together, wending through unknown country Home."
In grateful remembrance,

Violet C. Fesperman

PARISH COUNCIL MEETING - Thursday, Nov. 8 at 8 P.M. sharp in the Parish House.

THE Province of the Church in New Zealand includes the two vast missionary dioceses of Melanesia and Polynesia. Melanesia is inextricably associated with the names of its martyr bishop, John Coleridge Patteson, consecrated at the age of 34 and killed in his sleep ten years later (1871); and of the Pitcairn Islanders, descendants of the Bounty mutineers, who provided one "of the most remarkable Confirmations in the history of the Church." In Polynesia's cathedral at Suva, the capital of Fiji, close to the "date line," those who kneel before its altar at the early Eucharist lead the rest of Christendom in the worship of God as "the dawn leads on another day."

not yet finished, but much has been accomplished that he could not possibly have done alone.

ABOUT THE COVER:

With the exception of the cross, the fish is credited with being the oldest symbol in Christendom. The Greek word for fish is IXOUS (pronounced ikthus). The early Christians turned it into an acrostic that worked out as follows:

I - IHSUS	(Pronounced Yasoos)	Jesus
X - XPSTOS	(" Kristos)	Christ
O - OEOS	(" Thee-os)	God('s)
U - UIOS	(" Wee-os)	Son
S - SOTR	(" So-tare)	Savior

This was used as a code to identify Christians during the time of the Roman persecutions.
However, instead of saying the Greek word, they usually drew a simple fish. Today it reminds us always of the words of Christ, "Blessed are they who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven."

This Tuesday, March 26 - 8 PM Special Vestry Meeting.

"Let us make Good Friday a day of especial fast.
It is the one day in the year in which we are brought face to face with the Cross of Christ. Such a day should be observed with peculiar self-denial and solemn meditation. Why not spend it in the holy place of prayer, both at the morning service and lingering for the three hours contemplation and prayer from twelve to three? If you have not before participated in their benefit, make trial of them for yourself this year, and the glories of the Cross will be revealed to you in all their beauty and perfection. May the Holy Spirit direct your hearts to the love and praise of God in Christ Jesus."

Mrs. Thomas Gradwell thanks everyone who participated and helped with the HAT PARTY.

The collection at the Annual Meeting of the GERMANTOWN WALDENSIAN SOCIETY on March 21st was given as a memorial to ANNA L. DOWNS, for her loyal and faithful work in the society. The amount was $156.00. It will be sent, in her memory, to the small industrial town of Forintano, Italy, to help build a chapel there, on ground which the Waldensians themselves were able to buy.

"The way it was in those days"

"THE SUNDAY SCHOOL--This nursery of the church calls for your earnest prayers and hearty cooperation. Our ardent and energetic superintendent, Mr. J. Lee Patton, deserves all encouragement that can be given, first, by faithful and energetic visitation of the scholars by their teachers and careful preparation of their weekly lesson, and, secondly, by some manifested interest in its success from the congregation. The amount of offering received for the Sunday School in September was totally inadequate for current expenses."

ABOUT THE COVER

Nails forged by man pierced His hands and His feet. Thus He was fastened to a cross hewn by man. Upon His back were stripes inflicted by man. Upon His brow a crown of thorns. So the ingenuity of man, and the crystallized symptom of his rebellion against God, took vital form in the crucifixion. Above the cries of hate and the wailing of the fearful can be heard the promise of God, "Surely He hath borne our griefs and carried our sorrows, and with His stripes we are healed."

SURELY
BORNE OUR GRIEFS AND
SORROWS ...
AND WITH HIS
ARE HEALED

Since worship is only at its best when you most fully participate in it, here is a questionnaire for you to fill out to guide the Rector in planning for worship. It has seemed that there has been more full response when we have SAID the canticles and responses than when we have sung them. We don't want to know whether or not you like to HEAR the canticles sung, but whether you yourself can worship more fully by SAYING or SINGING them. Tear off and put in alms basin, or give to the Rector after the service:

I worship more fully when I ___ say the canticles at Morning Prayer.
___ sing the canticles at Morning Prayer.

I worship more fully when I ___ say the Kyrie, Sursum Corda, Sanctus, etc., ___ at Holy Communion.
___ sing the Kyrie, Sursum Corda, Sanctus, etc.,

We wait thy Holy Spirit's call

To purer will.

Be present, Lord, break Thou the bread.

Be here among us as we kneel

In deep contrition for our sin.

Our troubled spirits yearn to feel

Thy pardoning grace, thy love's reprieve,

Thy guiding hand.

Be near, O Lord, thy feast begin.

Old nylon stockings are very much needed by the Sewing Group if stuffed dolls and toys are to be made and it is hoped the lady members of the Church have been saving them and will kindly leave them at the Parish House for our good use.

"Ye ARE the salt." Jesus does not say: 'You MUST be the salt.' It is not for the disciples to decide whether they will be the salt of the earth ... Of course, there is another possibility ... the salt may lose its savour and cease to be salt at all. It just stops working ... Everything else needs to be seasoned with salt, but once the salt itself has lost its savour, it can never be salted again... That is the judgment which always hangs over the disciple community whose mission is to save the world, but which, if it ceases to live up to that mission, is itself irretrievably lost. The call of Jesus Christ means either that we are the salt of the earth, or else we are annihilated; either we follow the call or we are crushed beneath it... There is no question of a second chance."

Traditionally, our Thanksgiving Offering goes to the House of Rest, the nearby home which is close to our thoughts and prayers. This will continue to be true.

Bp. Armstrong has also appealed to the parishes in a notice from the Church House, for a Thanksgiving Offering this year to cover the cost of Chapel maintenance and the Chaplaincy Service at Episcopal Hospital. Last year's costs were $25,233 and the parish offerings were $16,398. The Chaplaincy Service provides bedside ministration and services in the Chapel for patients as well as counseling for student nurses and employees, guidance for the Student Christian Association, clinical training for divinity students and special services for older patients in Harrison House. The enclosed envelope gives you an opportunity to give an additional offering to this work, which deserves our serious attention, and which our Bishop calls on us to support more fully.

Estelle George supplies the following information on red doors on churches: "In 1955, an Indiana pastor announced that his church door was painted red to remind parishioners of the church debt. He promised to paint it green on satisfaction of the mortgage. During the Middle Ages, it was customary to paint doors red (particularly those of Gothic architecture), the color being symbolic of Christ's blood, shed to atone for the sins of mankind. The blood-red doors symbolize the entrance to eternal life and remind man that Christ's passion and death on the cross make it possible for him to merit the kingdom of God."

The Rector adds that it is also used as the color of a martyr's church, or is also associated with the Holy Spirit (the flames of fire).

ABOUT THE COVER

For the Christian, the greatest example of forgiveness is found in the life, death, and resurrection of Christ. The cover art combines the crown of thorns with an ancient symbol of Christ, the Chi-Rho (X and P), an abbreviation of the Greek spelling of Christ.

ABOUT THE COVER

The parable of the five wise and the five foolish virgins is an emphasis on forethought and preparedness. It is a meaningful message with which to end the church year, for the church's new year is to begin with the prophetic message of the first Sunday in Advent. The "Tau" cross used on the cover is the cross symbolical of prophecy. Therefore it is especially used by the Christian church for the Advent season.

watch therefore,

Today is Bible Sunday. Never before in history have we had a better opportunity to read legible and clear editions of the Scriptures. We also have at our fingertips many fine translations. In addition to the King James version, we now can have Goodspeed, Phillips, Revised Standard Version, and most recently the excellent New English Bible, and there are others as well. Our parish also provides an adult class at 10 AM each Sunday. This group is now working its way through the Epistle to the Romans. Your answer to the Supreme Court ruling is further study and prayerful thought in reading the Scriptures at home; and considering furthering your Biblical groundwork in the adult class where fellowship and discussion help the words to take on flesh.

Make the Advent Collect your every day prayer. It expresses perfectly the anticipation of His second Coming to us;

Almighty God, give us grace that we may cast away the works of darkness, and put upon us the armour of light, now in the time of this mortal life, in which thy Son Jesus Christ came to visit us in great humility; that in the last day, when he shall come again in his glorious majesty to judge both the quick and the dead, we may rise to the life immortal, through him who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, now and ever. Amen.

ABOUT THE COVER

Because of God's gift of grace in Christ, Christians "sing aloud unto God." 1 John states that "this is the record that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in His Son." John 20 records the first appearances of Christ after His death, and we are told that these events, together with the others in the Gospel, are written as a testimony that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God. To this joyous news the Christians unite in joyous response and "sing aloud unto God." The symbol of the eye of God within an equilateral triangle is one of the ways that Christians portray the fact that God is a living God, active and concerned; this activity and concern are expressed most fully in the Christ event.

In 1961, following Mr. McCracken's death, Mr. Roger Conant was appointed Rector's Warden by Mr. Davis, thus leaving a vacancy in the work of Accounting Warden which Mr. Conant did so well.

We were fortunate to be able to elect MR. WILLIAM R.
PRECHT as our Accounting Warden at that time. He has done a marvelous job for us all in this heavy responsibility, and we regret that he and Mrs. Precht will be moving to New Jersey to be closer to his new place of employment in Newark.

We just want to take this opportunity in our Sunday leaflet to express our deep appreciation for Bill and Martha in all that they mean to St. Peter's Parish, to wish them well in their new location, and to say that we trust that we will still see them often.

Since Bill has resigned as Accounting Warden, the Vestry has elected Mr. John Scruggs to this position.

The Rev. Herbert B. Satcher, D.D., will lead services on Sunday, July 5, and Sunday, July 12, in addition to celebrating the Holy Days in July.

The Rev. Edward T. Dell, Jr., from the editorial staff (Book Editor) of the EPISCOPALIAN magazine, will lead services on July 19 and 26.

The Rector will be away from July 3 through the month, and during this time, those in need of a priest may call the Rev. Milton S. Leber, Rector of Epiphany Church, Germantown, at GE 8-1694.

Celebration of the Holy Communion will take place on the following Holy Days at 10 AM:

St. Peter's Day - June 29
Independence Day - July 4
St. James Day - July 25
Transfiguration - August 6
St. Bartholomew - August 24

Full Choir and Church School activities will begin on September 13, the second Sunday in September. The choir this fall will begin on a completely voluntary basis. All those interested speak to Mr. Davis or Mr. Faulkner.

ABOUT THE COVER

The cross can be said to symbolize two directions of God's love. The vertical member would symbolize God's gracious sending of His Son to earth as our Savior. The horizontal member would symbolize our faith as impelled by God's love to reach out in love toward our fellowmen. Right here each of us needs to pray: "Turn Thee unto me." For God must ever help us express our love despite the evils of this world

Mrs. William Claflin, Secretary	VI 4-1203
Mr. Harold M. Ward, Sexton	VI 4-1203
Mr. James Faulkner, Organist-Choirmaster	VI 8-2263

Altar flowers today are given by Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Gensemer in memory of Guy Gensemer and Harry Sterner. Flowers in the Chapel are given by Mrs. Russell Henderson in memory of Etta L. Henderson.

We wish to Harold Ward all good wishes as he leaves his position as Sexton of St. Peter's Church. He has served in this responsibility since Robert Goodwin's resignation as Sexton in 1962.

Faced with the responsibility of seeking a replacement for Mr. Ward in his duties, the Rector and Property Committee (Mr. A. Lentz Fesperman, Chairman) have appointed Mr. Harvey Fisher, of Roxborough, to begin in this post on June 15, 1964.

We trust that we will continue to have Mr. Ward and his wife, Violet, in our midst as loyal communicants. We also welcome Mr. Fisher to his duties and pledge him our warm support as he takes his position as our new Sexton.

On June 14, at 8 PM, a recital of the choir and organist will take place at the Church of the Epiphany, Germantown, Carpenter Lane and Lincoln Drive. We are cordially invited to come.

Also, at the Coffee House of Epiphany, a Play-Reading will take place on the evening of June 27. This is not just for professionals, but for all those interested in those insights which come from reading a meaningful drama together.

Summer Services

Beginning on Sunday, June 21, services will continue at 8 and 11 AM. Volunteers are welcome to sing in the summer choir.

ABOUT THE COVER

Glory is a word that means splendor of a high degree. The glory of God is both in what He is in Himself and in His activities. This is to be seen most vividly in God's activity in Christ. Christ supremely reveals God's glory by the grace and truth which were His and by what He does for men, especially in the redemptive act. The Lord has truly given glory through His Son.

I know it's hard work, but we appreciate it so much!

Please send us your ribbons, your beads, and your bows,
Your home-made cakes, and rows and rows
Of toys for the children, and perhaps, something new,
I can picture it all, at the Fair

I remember the "Fairs" we had long ago,

It was all so gay, and Oh! what a show.

We made each "Booth", all beautifully bright

With decorations, and ribbons, and candles, and light.

Our young people, now, are brighter, by far,

With so much to choose from, as they reach for a star.

May they make this year's Fair the brightest one, yet;

One that the Davises will never forget!

(Margaret J. Alcorn)

Thanks to Jack Fleck for Chairing the Canvass this year. It was a big job, and this is the first canvass within memory at St. Peter's for many, many years. Our experience this year will help us greatly as we look to next year and the days ahead.

Mrs. Walker and Mrs. Cummings wish to thank all the women who assisted in the Rummage Sale and everyone who contributed to it. It was a great success and we are very grateful to them.

ABOUT THE COVER

Saturday, December 5

10 A.M. TO 10 P.M.

Our Holiday, Candy Cane, Christmas Bazaar,
Will burst like a rocket, and you shouldn't be far
From the Parish House, on the 5th of December,
Its sparkle and fun you will long remember.

We need new gifts for the "Gift Booth" at the Fair,
A "White Elephant Table", old or new, or very rare;
And millions, and billions, and trillions of toys,
To make it more glamorous for our girls, and our boys.

Let us make all the color of the Christmas Season,
So sparkling and joyous, and exciting that day;
Order tickets, send checks, let us know you are coming;
We need your kind help, come, be merry,
and Gay!

(Margaret J. Alcorn)

Every member is invited to help prepare the Parish House for the Fair. Work nights will begin Wednesday, December 2, at 7:30 PM.

The congregation is invited to a reception in the parish house honoring our composers of the evening. We thank all who have come and assisted in this series of programs, especially Miss Estelle George who, in addition to her duties in the choir, has prepared fine meals for everyone on Sunday night.

The financial support which this series has received appears to be adequate and it is hoped that the spring series can be held as planned. All those from outside the congregation who desire word concerning this series should contact the organist and give him their names. On the Sunday after Christmas, Mr. Davis' last Sunday, we plan to have as our guest Mr. James Holosovsky, cellist from Curtis Institute, who will play the service music with Dr. Fryer, using the music of Bach, Corelli and Defech.

Membership in the choir is open at this time and all who are interested should get in touch with Dr. Fryer. We would like to thank those who have assisted tonight, particularly Carol Melby, Ann Woodward, Roger Leachman and Edward Breidenfield.

JEAN REYNOLDS DAVIS, wife of our present rector, whose anthem is being sung tonight, is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania in music and has many pieces for choir and piano to her credit. In addition, she has had several pieces of creative writing published, and one is to be published in the January issue of Motive magazine.

DANIEL HATHAWAY is a second year student at Harvard College, concentrating in music, and is originally from Topeka, Kansas. While in high school there, he formed the Topeka Choral Guild which performed excellent music under his leadership. He is presently organist-choirmaster of Christ Church, Hyde Park, Boston. Dr. Fryer succeeded Mr. Hathaway for one year as organist of St. David's Church, Topeka.

ABOUT THE COVER

Here, in the somber restraint of Lent, as if to remind us again that suffering and death but lead to new life and glory, we are told of God's abundance. Both Old and New Covenants testify. Isaiah speaks in terms of food and drink. Christ multiplies the loaves and fishes. Paul assures us that this sufficiency belongs to us who are the free sons of God (Epistle).

ABOUT THE COVER

Again Christian people are given the joy of contemplating their glorious role as members of the kingly family of Him who came to rule all things by the Gospel. The reading from Romans tells us to find our hope in the Scriptures. Then Isaiah and Luke combine to assure us that the "Mighty God, the Prince of Peace," He who joins the heavenly and the earthly in the person of the God-Man as depicted by the cover, is the Son of Man who will finally come to judge the world. The six-pointed star indicates the heritage of the house of David.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Today is Stewardship Sunday, the day when we make our Pledge of that part of our Treasure (money) which we in Thanksgiving return to God for use by His Church.
This represents a very vital part of our commitment to Him. By it we are saying how important God and His Church are in our lives. After the sermon there will be time for you to fill in your pledge card, if you have not done so already. Place it in one of the envelopes in the pew- write your name on the envelope. During the singing of Hymn No. 156, each person will bring both pledge card and weekly offering and place it in the Alms basins at the Chancel steps.
After everyone has presented pledge cards and offering they will be taken to the Altar together with the bread and wine (also symbols of our lives) to be offered to God for His use.

A special Parish Meeting will follow the service in the Parish House . The question to be voted upon is whether The Charter is to be changed (Article 7) to enable women to be eligible for election to the Vestry.

All church school classes , except the Senior High Discussion Group will hold their classes as usual.

This morning's solist is Miss Edith Hemingway, Miss Hemingway is a supervisor of music for the Haddonfield, N.J.. public schools, and is a member of our choir. On Tuesday night, December 7, she will be solist with the Olney Symphony Orchestra. We thank her for her contribution to our worship this morning.
This evening at 8:00pm our series of special musical programs will continue with a piano recital by David Brown, who played so well last year. Music to be children in the family, ages 4-12 and a child's gift would also be appreciated.

ABOUT THE COVER

The Messiah was born to take up the shepherd's staff to lead us unto the great day of His second coming. John the Baptist, in his role of prophet, proclaims the first coming of the Christ and His redemption (Gospel). Paul allays our anxieties with the promise, "The Lord is at hand" (Epistle), to lead us to His and our great victory. This victory had its beginning for each of us when He led us through the waters of Baptism into His kingdom of light, the kingdom that is now within us.

HOLY COMMUNION at 10:00 am on Christmas Day

Many long years ago, a babe was born in Bethlehem whose coming to us still we celebrate in joyous worship and prayer, in carolling and gift-giving, and family love.

There is much to Christmas, now.... but there is nothing, really apart from a newborn child in homeless poverty in the cold stillness of this night; a young mother's vision, and an old man's dream; a people's hope, and the promise of God.

Many long years ago, a babe was born in Bethlehem. Shepherds on a hillside were simple enough to hear angels sing and see the heavens open in glory....and they were poor enough to care; But most people slept.

Three wise Kings in far-flung places were wise and humble enough to listen to words of ancient prophecy in their hearts, and to follow a star in faith; But most people didn't bother.

Yet this is all there was to Christmas, then- a newborn child with mother and father in a lonely stable, a few simple shepherds and three wise Kings.

May we be as simple and poor as the shepherds and be wise and faithful as the Kings. May we, too, come and kneel in the presense of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ, Amen.

ABOUT THE COVER

Faith is the reconciling agent between men and Christ their Lord. In today's lesson He acknowledges that His coming is for all who believe, whether they are of the house of Israel or not. The crosses on the world speak of those men, like the Canaanite woman, wherever they are, who have faith in the power of Christ for their lives. The cross over the world is a long-accepted symbol of the labor of Christ to bring all men under His gracious dominion. The means to this end is represented by the water of Baptism, which is the entrance gate from earth to heaven.

The Blessing

Palm Sunday is the beginning of the most terrible and wonderful, mysterious and meaningful week in the Christian year. On this day we celebrate the entrance of our Lord Jesus Christ into the city of Jerusalem, recreating the festivities of the day with the ancient customs of the Church. The custom of the procession of palms has been a regular preface to the liturgy of the day throughout Christendom since the fourth century, A.D. Even as we welcome Christ symbolically into our hearts and lives, singing the familiar, exultant Hymn, "All glory, laud, and honor", the shadow of the cross is darkening over us. In only a short time happy hearts will be cold, palm branches will be trampled under foot on the way to Golgotha and voices that sang, "Hosanna," will cry, "Crucify him! Let his blood be on us." Knowing our part in this, we go out from the service in silence.

ABOUT THE COVER

This Sunday our Lord continues His preparation of the disciples for the coming of the Spirit to work among them. He turns their eyes to the world around them and suggests that together with the Spirit they will be the means by which men come to Him. From this time on these men are as Christ in the world. In all sorts of company they must make it clear that they bear the mark of the cross of Christ. The cross over the world symbolizes the conquest of the world by Christianity.

Words of the Anthem

Love bade me welcome; yet my soul drew back,- Guilty of dust and sin. But quick-eyed Love, observing me grow slack From my first entrance in,- Drew nearer to me, sweetly questioning, If I lack'd anything. "A guest," I answer'd, "worthy to be here:" Love said, "You shall be he." "I the unkind, ungrateful? Ah, my dear, I cannot look on thee." Love took my hand and smiling did reply, "Who made the eyes but I?" "Truth, Lord, but I have marr'd them: let my shame Go where it doth deserve. "And know you not," says Love "who bore the blame?" "My dear, then I will serve."

ABOUT THE COVER

The cover art portrays a real truth in the answer of Christ to those who would entrap Him. The cross, which becomes a circle enclosing the world, indicates that the whole world, we ourselves, and all that we have are God's. In carrying out His will on earth, God has delegated some responsibilities to the state (Caesar). By paying taxes to the state, therefore, we are giving to that which is God's. The Christian believes that the state is an instrument of God's will and that its support is a part of our total stewardship of life.

to Caesar the things that are Caesar's to God the things that are God's

Today we present our pledges of our Time, Talent and Treasure. You are asked to place your pledge cards (both the cards for Treasure and the card for Time and Talent) in the offering plate at the time of the Offertory. This will symbolize both the giving of ourselves now in the form of our weekly offering, bread and wine together with the dedication and the commitment of ourselves for the coming year in the form of the pledge cards. These will all be offered to God at one time at the Altar. Additional pledge cards, envelopes and pencils have been placed in the pews for your use Reminder: All Canvassers will remain for lunch at 12:15. After a list has been made of all those who have responded, you will be given your names for the follow up calls.

ABOUT THE COVER

The entry of Christ into Jerusalem tells of a tragedy and a triumph. For the people of Israel who were looking for the restoration of the kingdom and a ruler who would overcome the Romans, it was a tragedy. Instead of a king like David, whose lineage is symbolized by the Star of David, they received a meek and lowly Christ. For those who believed on Him, this was a triumph, in which unknowingly the palms strewn in the way were heralding the conquering not of Rome but of human sin and misery.

ABOUT THE COVER

The Gospel tells us the coming of the Lord will be proclaimed by signs in the sun and stars. The creation, which is sustained daily by the power and love of its Creator, will give testimony to the will of the Lord. The Chi-Rho monogram (the first two letters of the Greek word for Christ) is seen as related to the sun and the stars, which tell of His coming while at the same time they were made by Him. He will come to reclaim His own.

With the cross we are lifted up into the new life of God's children. We are "re-made"; we become Christians. This transformation begins in us in the life-giving (green) bath and rebirth of Baptism. It continues through life as our mind grows more and more like the mind of Christ.

The glorious rays from heaven to the cross remind all men not to be scandalized by the horror of the crucifixion. On the contrary, we glory in the cross because on it our Savior gained the victory of our redemption. The transfiguration proclaimed this comforting message: It is God's Son who became man to die that we might live and share His radiant Sonship forever.

THIS IS MY BELOVED SON, WITH WHOM I AM WELL PLEASED

"Silver sweet, silver sweet, falls the snow. Fair and fleet, fair and fleet, angels go, Herald angels all of them singing that in Bethlehem Love's aglow! In the straw in the straw, Jesus lies without flaw, without flaw in Heaven's eyes. All that God meant man to be Jesus ineffably satisfies. Shepherds come, ages come to Love's call. The apostle Paul tells us that we must never be discouraged by the slow growth of our Christian understanding and love. We must now accept humbly, even on our knees, what is dim so that we can rejoice all the more in the glories which Christ will reveal to us, even as He opened the eyes of blind men.

Many waters cannot quench Love, neither can floods drown it. Many waters cannot quench Love, neither can floods drown it. Love is strong as death. Love is strong as death. Many waters cannot quench Love. Greater Love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends. Who His own Self bare our sins in His own Body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness, should live unto righteousness. That we being dead unto sins, should live unto righteousness, should live unto righteousness. Ye are washed, ye are sanctified, ye are justified, in the Name of the Lord Jesus; Ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, That ye should shew forth the praises of Him Who hath called you out of darkness, out of darkness into His marvelous light. I beseech you, brethren, by the mercies of that ye present your bodies, a living sacrifice, holy, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

We cannot grasp the Trinity, nor fully explain today's Epistle. Still we believe what is said and shown: Red color suggests the fire of the Holy Spirit. Triangle and fish are ancient symbols of the Trinity and Christ. Everything comes from God the Father. All are redeemed by the Son on the cross. Salvation is accepted through the work of the Holy Spirit. All things are to the everlasting glory of God.

In Baptism the Spirit invested us with a new and godly nature. His power stays in us so that when we defile ourselves by sin and ask to be forgiven, His pardon "puts on" us again the image of Christ. The effect of Baptism is renewed, and we walk again in righteousness and holiness as sons of God.

The growing plant well symbolizes the Christian's passage through life. The seed of the new life is planted at Baptism; the new life is nourished by God's grace as it grows stronger with stalk and leaf; the process reaches completion when our Savior calls us to join Him in the everlasting presence of the Father.

"The Light shines in darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it." The darkness of sin is our condition by birth, and we were completely under its power and dominion. But the victory of the Light through His cross and the open tomb is ours through faith, and we now live in the dazzling glory of His eternal kingdom.

Revelation 7:9-17 describes the marvelous scene of the saints being welcomed into heaven because they have washed their robes white in the blood of the Lamb. This passage provides the inspiration for the design illustrating Paul's message to the Romans. Christ, the Lamb, indeed welcomes us as we by faith wash away all our sins in His blood. Can we not welcome all men into our lives after His example?

one another... as Christ has welcomed you....*

 Offertory Anthem - "What is This Fragrance?" arr. J. S. Bach
 What is this fragrance softly blowing, Shepherds, what is this wondrous thing, Filling the night with rarest beauty Like fields abloom with flow'rs in spring?
 What is this light so clear, so dazzling, Bright'ning the night before our eyes? Bright as the day it journeys on-ward; Never were such radiant skies! In Bethlehem in manger lowly lies our Redeemer, Saviour, Lord.
 Come, let us go and kneel before him; Give him our hearts with one accord. In Bethlehem, in manger lowly lies our Redeemer, Saviour, Lord. Come, let us worship, bow down, adore.

Peggy Scruggs and Joe Bosworth are volunteering their time to attend these planning sessions being held at the Diocesan Conference Center in Radnor this weekend and February 9-11.

From eternity (endless circle) Christ (Chi-Rho) breaks in on the shattered world of sinful men. The scattered pieces He makes whole again. Across space and time He answers the appeals of those who, like the centurion of Capernaum, believe in Him and His divine power and willingness to help.

The parable of the laborers in the vineyard shows that the affairs of God's kingdom cannot be measured in terms of hours or dollars. At His own time God calls His laborers, and He alone determines their reward. If He wants to be generous with what is His, who are we to criticize or be envious?

The seed of God's Word does not in all cases bring lasting results when it falls on the soil of men's hearts. In His parable Jesus tells of three conditions where the seed is fruitless. Only in the fourth does the Word find the acceptance of faith and result in a godly life and salvation.

Many waters cannot quench Love, neither can ten floods drown it. Love is strong as death. Greater Love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends. Who His own Self bare our sins in His own Body on the tree, that we being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness, Ye are washed, ye are sanctified, ye are justified, in the Name of the Lord Jesus: Ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, that ye should shew forth the praises of Him Who hath called you out of darkness into His marvelous light. I beseech you, brethren, by the mercies of God that ye present your bodies, a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

Offertory Sentences

Offertory Anthem: "The Season of Questions is Over"
 Austin Lovelace

The season of questions is over, the winter of asking is done. Now is the hour for the answer: the spring of the world has begun. The questions were thousands of word-spears that pitted the mind with their pocks. The answer is ointment hidden in an alabaster box. The questions were searching and painful, so ruthless and bitter and hard. The answer is very costly, and it has the scent of nard. The winter of questions is over, the season of sleet has gone by. Christ is the great affirmation: Love is the only reply.

Offertory Anthem - "I Got Me Flowers" from "Five Mystical Songs" Ralph Vaughan Williams

I got me flowers to strew thy way; I got me boughs off many a tree: But thou wast up by break of day, and brought's thy sweets along with thee. The Sun arising in the East, though he give light, and the East perfume; if they should offer to contest with thy arising, they presume. Can there be any day but this, though many suns to shine endeavor? We count three hundred, but we miss: There is but one, and that one ever.

Today we are receiving a special offering to support some much needed work in the Diocese and in the National Church. The Episcopal Church throughout the Diocese has set a goal of $155,000 for this day. The first half of this amount will be sent as our commitment to the National Church. The remaining money will be used here in Pennsylvania. (A description of the needs was enclosed in the last issue of the Keys.) Your support is asked. Please use the enclosed envelopes for your contribution.

This Sunday marks the last occasion that the choir will be with us this year, except for the Dedication Service on June 23. We appreciate their loyalty during this year, and look forward to their return in the fall.

Sunday morning are asked to be in the church at 9:30 next Sunday morning for rehearsal.

+ + +

The Arts and Crafts Group has taken responsibility for the Reception on the day of the Dedication. If you can help or would like to contribute "goodies" speak with Georgia Kirkpatrick, Peggy Scruggs or Jean Sparkman.

+ + +

There will be a Corporate Communion for the Altar Guild in the Chapel on Monday, June 24 at 7:30 pm., to be followed by the regular meeting.

+ + +

The training for Directors and Staff members of the Day Camps throughout the Diocese will take place here three days at the end of June. (Saturday, June 22, Tuesday, June 25 and Thursday, June 27).

Volunteers from the parish are needed to provide a light simple lunch on each of these days. If you would be able to pitch in and help on any of these days speak with Mr. McKelvey.

+ + +

Next Sunday we will receive a special offering for support of the Day Camp to begin on July 8 and run through the month.

Open dates for Altar flowers - June 23 and June 30.

The Gospel story of the rich man and the beggar at his gate shows us two extremes of life. The thorns represent the suffering which comes from the life of unrepented sin. Christ Himself knew the pain of the thorns as He bore our sin. On the other hand a true state of resurrection awaits those who have found mercy through faith in their Lord. Even as He cares for the plants of His creation, He blesses His own with warmth and comfort.

When thou hast don, thou hast not done, for I have more. Wilt thou forgive that sin by which I won others to sin? and, made my sin their door? Wilt thou forgive that sin which I did shun a year or two, but wallowed in, a score? When thou hast done, thou hast not done, for I have more. I have a sin of fear that when I've spun my last thread, I shall perish on the shore; swear by thyself, that at my death thy Son shall shine as he shines now, and heretofore. Birds and flowers provide the focus for Christ's words. God provides for them daily and in abundance. Will He not do even more for us who are made in His image and redeemed by His Son? Birds, flowers, and all creation should daily remind us to cast all our cares on Him: He will provide.

ARE YOU NOT OF MORE VALUE THAN THEY?

In today's text Christ is speaking of the children. He has given His words of concern that they be looked on with favor and love. When He speaks of the angels of these children as being constantly in God's presence, He sharpens the concept of the role of the angels: to serve the Father and watch over His people.

The Gospel story tells a parable of the coming of Christ. He is likened to the bridegroom for whom the maidens are waiting. Some have foolishly burned all the oil in their lamps while waiting; the others have saved their oil until the bridegroom has come and they must go to meet him. So our lives must be lived in constant readiness for Christ.

As children copy their father's action, the Christian, God's child through Baptism, is to obey the Father. Such obedience is described as imitating God. Our artwork symbolizes the life out of focus and the contrast when our eyes are sighted on God in perfect imitation.

It is the Spirit of God that motivates the Christian to do good deeds. His love, both for those within the household of faith and for those without, is expressed in service to all, though it be one by one. As we thus carry the cross into the world, men are joined to one another in community.

Military preparedness is all-important in winning battles. All of life is a battle, and the soldier of Christ must be equipped for his assignments. We need the whole armor of God: truth, righteousness, the Gospel of peace, faith, salvation, and the Word of God.

Take the whole armor of God

ffertory Anthem - "Stranger, Share Our Fire" Daniel Moe

Stranger share our fire, here's bread, a sop of stew, it's all we have of ourselves, it's what we offer you.
The sky swells out with stars, we stare to see the view, it's all we have ourselves, it's what we offer you. The ground beneath our backs, holds us and warms us too.
The road tomorrow sends may be the worst we knew, it's all we have ourselves, it's what we offer you. Tonight the fire is yours, and yours the morning dew, it's all we have ourselves, it's what we offer you.

Offertory Anthem - "In the Year that King Ussiah Died"	David McK. Williams

In the year that King Ussiah died, I saw also the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up, and his train filled the temple. Above it stood the seraphim: each one had six wings; with twain he covered his face, with twain he covered his feet, and with twain did fly. And one cried unto another and said, Holy, Holy, Holy is the Lord of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory. And the posts of the door moved at the voice of him that cried, and the house was filled with smoke. Then said I, Woe is me! for I am undone; because I am a man of unclean lips and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for mine eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts. Then flew one of the seraphim, having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with tongs from off the Altar; and he laid it upon my mouth and said, Lo this hath touched thy lips and thine iniquity is taken away, and thy sin is purged. Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? The said I, Here am I, send me.
